DEATH IS DEALT BY AN EXPLOSION AT FORT MOULTRIE

Three Soldiers Instantly Killed and Captain Guy Hanna Fatally Wounded — Others Less Seriously Injured.

BREECH BLOCK OF GUN BLEW OUT AT PRACTICE

Two of the Soldiers Were Cut in Two—Several Doctors Summoned From Charleston to Care for Wounded.

Charleston, S. C., May 22.—Privates Baxter, Christian and Dalton are dead, Captain Guy Hanna probably fatally wounded, Privates Swaggerty and Steinspringer seriously wounded and several others less seriously wounded as the result of the explosion of a 4.7 inch gun at Battery Lord, Fort Moultrie, at 9:20 o'clock tonight while the coast artillerymen were at target practice.

Baxter and Christian were killed outright, and Dalton passed away at 12:30 o'clock, according to reports from the army post hospital.

Captain Hanna, of the Sixteenth company, who was in charge, was struck in the inteatines by a fragment from the breech block, which was blown into a thousand pieces. He was standing between Captain Clarke, of the One hundred and Forty-fourth company, and Lieutenant Perry, of the Sixteenth, neither of whom was hurt.

The gun was directly opposite the army post hospital, to which the victims were immediately taken. A message was flashed to Charleston asking that all the doctors be sent to Fort Moultrie. They began to assist at the hospital immediately on their arrival and help the army surgeon.

Baxter and Christian were cut in two when the explosion occurred, and a great hole was torn in the side of Captain Hanna.

The explosion occurred at Battery Bingham, and the men were at night target practice, Captain Hanna was in charge of the gun.

A corporal, whose name is not known, had his right shoulder torn off. It is feared that several of the wounded soldiers will die.

Reports are conflicting, though it appears that the breech of the gun was not closed after the insertion of the cartridge and that when the cartridge was exploded the breech blew back with terrific force.

Hospital Steward Lamar was among the soldiers wounded.

P. H. NIXON IS HELD IN PERU, INDIANA, ON MURDER CHARGE

Hartwell, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Sid Johnson, sheriff of Hart county, has gone to Peru, Ind., where he has been notified that P. Henry Nixon is under arrest. Nixon was indicted at the October term, 1912, together with his brother, Ellis Nixon, charged with the murder of their brother-in-law, John F. Heaton, of Hart county.

The Nixon boys immediately after the killing of Heaton were arrested and tried before a committing court. They plead self-defense and the committing court dismissed the warrants against them and set them free. The grand jury later returned a bill against them for murder.

All of the parties are well known in Hart county.

The Nixon boys were represented on the committing trial by Skelton & Skelton, James H. Skelton and A. G. and Julian B. McCurry, while A. A. McCurry appeared for the state.

EMPEROR OF JAPAN DANGEROUSLY ILL

Inflammation of Lungs Has Developed and He Has a High Fever—Physicians in Constant Attendance.

Tokio, May 22.—Emperor Yoshihito of Japan was taken ill today. The physicians in attendance declare that he is suffering from inflammation of the lungs.

Emperor Yoshihito is in a state of high fever. Eight court physicians are in constant attendance on him.

The emperor of Japan succeeded his father in July, 1912. He is in his 56th year, and has three sons, the eldest of whom is Crown Prince Hirohito, just 12 years old.

The emperor has previously suffered from lung ailments. During an attack in 1908 his condition was very serious.

The emperor caught a slight cold on May 18, but it was announced it was unimportant and that his majesty would soon resume his activities.

Tonight the nation was shocked by the issue of this official bulletin from the imperial palace, signed by the eight court physicians:

"The emperor, who has been suffering from a slight cold, developed inflammation of the lungs today. We do not consider his condition justifies anxiety, but his temperature is high."

Wilson Cables Sorrow.

Washington, May 23.—President Wilson late today cabled the emperor of Japan as follows: :

"Reports received through press agencies are current to the effect that your majesty is indisposed. I have heard these reports with sorrow and with great concern. Should they prove to be true, I desire to offer to your majesty for myself and for the government and people of the United States the assurance of my sincere sympathy, and to express the ardent hope that your illness may prove to be a brief duration and your recovery rapid and complete."

RECEIVER NAMED FOR SAVINGS BANK

Institution Unable to Meet Demands of Creditors, Although Assets Are Double Liabilities.

Although a statement of its affairs shows its assets to be $100,000 and its liabilities $57,000, the City Savings bank, Robert H. McDougald, president, has been unable to meet the demands of its creditors and depositors and through a consent order yesterday was placed in the hands of a receiver by Judge John T. Pendleton, of the superior court. Attorney L. F. McClelland was appointed receiver.

The bank, which is located in the same building as the Guarantee Trust and Banking company, suffered a "run" from March 28 to 31, and was forced to close its doors.

The trouble, as stated by its officials is that there was so much of the assets invested in long-term notes which could not be disposed of, that it became impossible to meet demands.

The petition for a receiver was filed Thursday by five members, composing the committee appointed recently at a stockholders' meeting to endeavor to secure from other financial institutions temporary aid to tide over the present situation. This committee states in its formal petition to the court that although nearly every organization of which they know has been applied to, they have found it impossible to secure aid and that it is now necessary for a receiver to be appointed to conserve the assets, at present in the hands of the state bank examiner.

The committee is composed of W. A. Sims, and Fr. M. Lovejoy, directors, and stockholders, and Charles P. Glover, S. J. Pridgen and Ed M. Pearce, stockholders, but not directors.

Receiver McClelland has been ordered by the court to make a complete inventory of the assets and to hold them pending further orders from court.

MILLIONAIRE COUGHS AND FALLS INTO RIVER

Painter Drowned at Jacksonville—Carried $500,000 Insurance and Wanted More.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 22.—E. C. Painter, the "fertilizer king," was drowned at 9:30 this morning by falling from a ferry boat into the St. Johns river.

Mr. Painter was seized with a fit of coughing and fell from the boat striking immediately. He was a millionaire and carried $500,000 insurance. He had applied only this morning for an additional $50,000.

He was at the head of the big fertilizing plant of E. C. Painter & company and half of the insurance is in favor of the firm, the remainder going to the family. He was widely known in farm and orchard circles.

Pope Heads Manufacturers.

New York, May 22.—A telegram was received today at the offices of the National Association of Manufacturers announcing that the following officers had been elected today after the annual meeting in Detroit:

President, George Pope, Hartford, Conn.; general manager, Phillip Byrd, New York; secretary, George S. Boudinot, New York.

ANNUAL CONGRESS PROPOSED FOR ALL PRESBYTERIANS

Movement Is Put on Foot at the Closing Session of the Southern Presbyterian Assembly.

BODY TO BE MODELED AFTER U. S. CONGRESS

Delegates Have Nothing But Good Words to Say of Atlanta's Hospitality as They Leave City.

In the closing hour of the Southern Presbyterian assembly of 1913, which came to an end Thursday afternoon at the North Avenue church, a plan was born that points toward the eventual consolidation of all the Presbyterian churches of America in a "Greater Presbyterian Congress"—formed directly on the plan of the congress of the United States, with a senate and a house of representatives supreme in authority over all Presbyterian affairs in the country.

The plan made its appearance in the report of the "select committee on closer relations with other ecclesiastical bodies," submitted to the assembly by Dr. R. F. Campbell, of Asheville, N. C., chairman of the committee. Because of the approaching adjournment that faced the assembly, it was impossible to discuss the plan at length, although a number wanted to precipitate the question of church union at once, regardless of adjournment. By its previous decision to postpone action till next year on the proposed union with the U. P. church, however, the assembly had set itself on record as favoring slow and careful consideration of the question of union, and Dr. Campbell's report was accordingly referred to the committee considering the U. P. affiliation, for a detailed report at the assembly of 1914 in Kansas City.

Modelled on U. S. Congress.

As outlined by Dr. Campbell, however, the proposition facinated the minds of scores of those present Thursday afternoon at the closing session, offering as it did the most logical and far-reaching in its scope of all the plans made for church union.

"We recommend that the assembly instruct its committee to propose to the conference a plan for such relations through a federal congress," read the report, "the congress to consist of an upper and lower house—the churches of the federation to have representation in the lower house on the basis of the number of communicants, and every church in the federation to have equal representation in the upper house, the concurrence of both houses to be necessary for authoritative action."

In the closing session of the southern assembly a number of other interesting reports were also made. Dr. G. L. Bitter, of Valdosta, Ga., read the report on Home and School, the Presbyterian institution at Fredericksburg, Va., and the assembly decided not to turn this school over to the synod of Virginia at the present time, but to consider the matter again next year if Virginia repeated her request.

Return of the Deputation.

Dr. W. M. McPheeters, of Columbia seminary, Columbia, S. C., who withdrew sensationally from the assembly Thursday after a clash with the Moderator J. S. Lyons, returned to the assembly at the afternoon session. In the interest of harmony he had been persuaded from his first intention of severing his relations with the assembly. He appeared on the platform at the closing session and read his report as chairman of the committee on publications and Sabbath schools. The report urged a greater extension of Sabbath school work than ever before, in the realization that this is one of the greatest missionary forces existing within the church.

The clash between Dr. McPheeters and Moderator Lyons, which was outstanding event of the Thursday morning session, and arose in the discussion of the proposed withdrawal of the Southern Presbyterian church from the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. The assembly had just received the majority report of D. Lowry, favoring withdrawal, and Dr. McPheeters was trying to get a substitute minority report before the house when he was called out of order. Charging "steam roller" methods to Dr. Lyons he declared that he would remain in the assembly no longer, handed his committee report to the clerk and walked out.

His withdrawal, however, was not acted upon by the assembly, and before the afternoon session convened Dr. McPheeters had changed his mind about withdrawing.

Dr. Jacobs Talks Oglethorpe.

In the interest of Oglethorpe university, the Presbyterian institution that is soon to be rebuilt in the suburbs of Atlanta, Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, editor of The Westminister Magazine, of Atlanta, addressed the afternoon session. He told of the wonderful opportunity for southern Presbyterianism that lies in the opening of this school, now "rising from the dead," and he detailed the plans for the beginning of work on the university by next fall.

Dr. D. S. Gage, of Westminister college, Fulton, Mo., presented the report of the committee on the church's position with regard to the liquor traffic, reporting unfavorably on a proposition for the assemblies to petition the legislatures of the states to repeal all liquor license laws, the report declaring that this would do no good, as the legislatures are not going to act until there is a big cry from the people of their own state.

"We urge on all our membership the duty of using all legitimate means for the banishment of this traffic from the land," read the report, "and for striving by voice and vote, in all ways which may be approved by their Christian conscience and judgment, for the enactment of such laws as shall most speedily and effectively bring this result to pass."

Americans in Cuba Hope for Prosperity

President MENOCAL
Vice President VARONA
Secretary of State TORRIENTE
Secretary of Justice DE LA GUARDIA
Secretary of the Navy VILLALON

Americans living in Havana awaited the inauguration of the new administration with keen interest. It was hoped that the incoming of President Mario G. Menocal, succeeding President Gomez, would result in a new era of prosperity for the island republic. Those who had studied the career of the new president believed he would give Cuba a good administration. He was born in 1866 in Jaguey Grande, Matanzas province. At an early age his family moved to the United States, and he was educated in the military college at Washington, where he obtained the rank of captain. From there he went to Cornell, where he graduated as a civil engineer. When he returned to Cuba he became a private in the revolutionary forces and rose to the position of general. His military record was brilliant. He rendered good service to the Americans at the time of the Spanish evacuation and General Ludlow, civil governor of Havana province, appointed him chief of police of Havana, a position requiring at that time great tact and ability. Enrique Jose Varona, the new vice president was born in 1849. He became professor of philosophy and ethics in the University of Havana. The members of the new cabinet are: Secretary of state, Cosme de la Torriente; secretary of justice, Cristobal de la Guardia; secretary of government, Aurelio Hevia; secretary of the treasury, Leopoldo Cancio; secretary of public works, Jose Ramon Villalon; secretary of agriculture, General Emilio Nunes; secretary of public instruction, Ezequiel Garica; secretary of sanitation, Dr. Enrique Nunes.

SEARCH IS MADE FOR TAX DODGERS

Declared That 1,500 Children Are in Public Schools Whose Parents Are Paying No Taxes.

That approximately 1,500 children are carried on the public school roster whose parents are "dodging" the tax assessors was the unofficial statement which came from the tax office yesterday afternoon.

Charles W. Smith, chairman of the tax committee, estimates that the number will be boiled down to about 1,200 when C. B. Beauchamp, chief clerk in the assessors' office, completes his check of the school list against the tax register.

It is roughly estimated that about $4,800 will be added to the tax returns by forcing dodgers of street and personal taxes to pay up.

"I am going to instruct the tax assessors to notify the delinquents to pay their taxes," Chairman Smith said Monday, "and if they fail the city marshal is going to fi. fa. them and make levies on personal property."

The discovery that there were children attending the public schools of Atlanta whose parents made no tax returns was brought to the attention of the tax committee very recently Tax Chairman Smith called for the school roster from Superintendent Slaton, of the public schools. The list was turned over to Chief Clerk Beauchamp, in the tax office, Monday, and a systematic check has been made.

While no official report has been made to the tax committee, Chairman Smith believes, from the information he has received from the tax assessors' office, that more than 1,200 parents will be forced to pay their taxes and aid in the support and maintenance of the public schools.

"I have learned that in some instances parents have three and four children at different schools and they are paying no taxes," Chairman Smith said. "We are checking the roster of each school against the tax register, and for that reason I feel certain that the delinquent list will be cut down considerably."

Tax Dodging on Increase.

According to the tax assessors, there is a growing tendency on the part of the parents to dodge the payment of street and personal taxes. They are overlooked because they fail to give their names to the city directory, and cleverly and persistently dodge the

HE KICKED HER FEET AND THEN KISSED HER

Girl Stenographer Tells of the Playful Attentions of the School Superintendent.

Pittsburg, May 22.—Mrs. Arthur H. Wessels, who was Alice Lang, a stenographer in the office of Superintendent of Schools Sylvanus L. Heeter, today on the witness stand before the committee of citizens named to probe rumors reflecting on Heeter, told her story of the educator's alleged misconduct.

She said the superintendent had begun his attentions by patting her on the shoulder and playfully kicking her feet beneath her desk, and later had forcibly kissed her. She said she did not resign at once because her salary was needed at home and she feared if she complained to the board of education her story would be contradicted. A week after the kiss she said she resisted against working at night and the superintendent discharged her. Superintendent Heeter and his counsel sat through the recital and Mrs. Wessels was subjected to close examination during which she became confused as to dates.

Arthur H. Wessels, husband of Mrs. Wessels, and Dr. J. Chris Lange, an uncle by marriage, testified to the effect that they had heard the story of Superintendent Heeter's alleged familiarity shortly after Mrs. Wessels had left her position in Heeter's office.

The investigation has been adjourned until Saturday afternoon, when counsel for Heeter will present the superintendent's defense. The final report of the committee is expected to be presented to the board of education by Tuesday of next week.

HIGHWAYMEN FOUGHT BY BANK MESSENGER

New York, May 22.—James T. Wintress, a bank messenger, gave battle in the street today to four highwaymen who leaped into his carriage and attempted to wrest from him the pay-roll of the Nathan Manufacturing company. Resulting their efforts to subdue him with a rifle, revolver and clubs, he fought to such good purpose that he saved the money, although he was shot in the arm and his scalp laid open.

Policeman heard the shooting and ran to his aid. At the approach the highwaymen fled. One of them was shot by a bluecoat; another was captured after a thrilling chase; two of them escaped.

MRS. WILSON NAMES ANOTHER POSTMASTER

Murfreesboro, Tenn., Office for the Mother-in-Law of Mrs. Wilson's Sister.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, May 22.—(Special.)—Mrs. Wilson has awarded another post-office appointment. This one goes to the mother-in-law of her sister. The recipient is Mrs. Margaret G. Elliott, of Murfreesboro, Tenn.

Following so closely upon the rejection of Representative Gordon Lee's recommendation and the appointment of James Park Bowie as postmaster at Rome, which the senate confirmed today, the influence which caused Mrs. Elliott to get this $2,500 job has caused members of congress much apprehension and perturbation of spirit.

Representative William C. Houston, of the fifth district, had nominated W. B. Bragg for this place, and the recommendation was approved by both Senators Lea and Shields. But the president turned down the recommendation and today sent in the name of Mrs. Elliott, who is the widow of the republican postmaster under Harrison. Mrs. Elliott is the mother of Edward Elliott, who married a sister of Mrs. Wilson. Mr. Elliott has occupied a chair at Princeton, but for the past ten years has been in California. Mrs. Elliott wrote her sister that she wanted her mother-in-law appoint, and Mrs. Wilson secured the promise of the place from the president.

Other nominations in addition to that of Mr. Bowie, which the senate confirmed today, were these: Bowdon, Merida L. Moore; Concord, Richard E. Lee; Jonesboro, William L. Watterson; Milledgeville, R. B. Moore; Oglethorpe, Fannie F. Elmore.

Mrs. Hogan for College Park.

Among the nominations sent to the senate today were these: Georgia—John F. Jenkins, Ashburn; Mrs. Minnie E. Hogan, College Park; William F. Jones, Hogansville; Charles Beatty, Moultrie; Vivian McCurdy, Stone Mountain; B. A. Parker, Whigham; Adiel R. Scott, McDonough; Jack C. Atkinson, Midville; Charles Jackson, Palmetto; J. L. Wells, Smithville; James F. Stewart, Talluiah Falls.

Howard Baby Ill.

Representative William Schley Howard is greatly distressed over the serious illness of his 5-months-old baby, Pierre. The baby has been ill for several days and the ailment was today definitely diagnosed as pneumonia.

ROOMING HOUSE SOUGHT BY FRANK DECLARES WOMAN

Mrs. Mima Famby Swears Suspected Man Wanted a Room for Himself and a Girl on Murder Night.

TO PRESENT AFFIDAVIT TO GRAND JURY TODAY

Mysterious Telephone Message Caused Detectives to Interview Woman Who Conducts Rooming House.

Mrs. Mima Famby, who conducts a rooming house at 400 Piedmont avenue, near Currier street, has signed an affidavit to the effect that on April 26 Leo M. Frank called her up repeatedly by telephone and endeavored to secure a room for himself and a young girl.

The affidavit was signed Monday, May 11, but had been kept a secret. Mrs. Famby attached her signature to the document in the office of Detective Chief Lanford in police headquarters, and was sworn by Recorder Noah Broyles in the presence of Probation Officer Sidney J. Coogler. The affidavit was then turned over to Solicitor Dorsey.

Detectives say this is one of the most important bits of evidence they hold. It will, is all probability, be submitted to the grand jury when it takes up the Phagan case this morning at 10 o'clock. It was gained through a mysterious telephone call which came to police headquarters only a short while after the body had been discovered.

Some one, who refused to give a name, telephoned Chief Lanford, giving this message:

"Look up Mrs. Mima Famby. She knows more than she has told."

Signs Affidavits for Detectives.

Two detectives were assigned to search for Mrs. Famby. Within a few hours she had been located at the Piedmont apartments. Readily giving the detectives the desired information, she offered to sign an affidavit suggested by one, them. The following night she was interviewed by Chief Lanford and Chief Beavers, who visited her apartments. On Monday the two police officials and Solicitor Dorsey appeared at her home and asked that she come to police headquarters to sign the affidavit.

Mrs. Famby's statement to a Constitution reported yesterday afternoon was exactly what appears in the affidavit, according to Chief Lanford. She and a party of friends were playing bridge in her apartments late in the afternoon of Memorial day, she said, when Frank, whom she had known for considerable while, telephoned her.

Called Many Times.

It was between 6 o'clock and 6:30, she stated. The suspected superintendent, according to her story asked over the wire for permission to rent one of her rooms that was to be used by him and a girl whose name he would not give. He was flatly refused, Mrs. Famby declared, but insisted that he be rented an apartment.

"He said that he was forced to obtain a room for him and the girl," the woman stated, "and that he didn't want to go elsewhere, because he put much implicit trust in me. I would not grant his request and hung up the telephone."

A little later, she says, Frank telephoned again, this time insistent. It was a case of life and death, she quoted him as having said.

C. F. von HERRMANN, Section Director.

According to her statement, Frank called Mrs. Famby at least a half dozen times, from 6:30 o'clock until 10 that night. Finally, she says, in order to stop his repeated calls, she told him not to ring her any more, as she was going automobiling with friends.

Offered Money to Leave City.

Mrs. Famby states further that she has been made numerous offers of money to leave the city until the courts had finished with the Phagan case.

Alexander S. Martin, of Gainesville, who is connected with a newspaper of that city, will be summoned by Chief Lanford to testify to the woman's statement to the effect that she had been offered hush money. His name was taken by the chief, and he was notified that he would likely be called to Atlanta at any moment. Lanford told reporters Thursday night that he would make an immediate investigation of the reported bribery attempts.

Stating that shortly after his arrest she had visited him in the Tower, Mrs. Famby says Frank first appeared not to recognize her, but later made acknowledged acquaintance, holding a secret conversation, the nature of which she has not revealed. She also states that while she resided at 87 Armstrong street Frank was a frequent visitor at her place, and had come often in company with girls.

Case Before Grand Jury Today.

The Phagan mystery goes before the Fulton grand jury this morning at 10 o'clock, it was definitely announced Thursday by Mr. Dorsey. Throughout the day he had been in conference with Chief Lanford, headquarters detectives and members of his own investigating staff, arranging the evidence at hand for presentation to the jury.

Lanford Talks of Affidavit.

Chief Lanford's theory, as outlined by him last night to a Constitution reporter, is that Mary Phagan had already been knocked unconscious when the alleged telephone request was made to Mrs. Famby for a room in her place, and that Frank's plan was to remove the insensible girl to the Piedmont avenue address, where she could be revived and could be given medical treatment.

"The intentions were," the chief said, "to carry the girl to Mrs. Famby's apartments so that she would be restored to consciousness in surroundings which would not excite suspicion. The assault attempt had already been made, and Mary Phagan had been rendered insensible by the blow she received from the fall against the lathing machine.

"I believe that all the while Mrs. Famby was being telephoned, the unconscious girl was lying hidden in some part of the pencil factory, oblivious to everything, awaiting the terrible death which befell her. Mrs. Famby's statement is to the effect that Frank persisted desperately in his effort to obtain a room, and even went so far as to say it was a matter of life or death.

"When it was seen that the woman would not rent a room in her apartments, and the girl could not be removed to a place where she could be revived without creating suspicion, it was absolutely necessary to dispose of her. Dead folk tell no tales. Mrs. Famby says the telephone calls came as late as 10 o'clock, and that they did not end until she, in order to stop them, declared she was leaving her apartments and was going on an automobile ride."

A score of detectives and deputies were busy all day subpoenaing witnesses, 100 or more of which will probably be summoned before the jury closes its investigation. It will require two days or longer for the return of either true or no bills against Frank and the negro watchman, the only names which will be submitted.

Startling developments are expected. Both Mr. Dorsey and detectives at police headquarters declare they possess evidence which has never been revealed. The affidavit attested to by Mrs. Famby yielded some facts. All parties concerned in the investigation express satisfaction over the results they say they have obtained, and are optimistic of the case's outcome.

Parrott Praises Frank.

Recommending Frank, both as a private citizen, as a business man and as an employer, George W. Parrott, a well-known man in local financial and business circles, has written the following letter to The Constitution:

"As is perhaps known by many, I am interested in the National Pencil company, and I have, with keen interest, noted, from time to time, hints and insinuations that Mr. Leo Frank has misused and mistreated female employees of the factory.

"I felt it due myself and hte other gentlemen interested in the factory that as to this matter there should be a thorough investigation.

"To that end, on Wednesday, together with other gentlemen likewise interested in the factory, I interviewed every employee of the factory, both male and female.

"Everyone of them, without a dissenting voice, voluntarily and emphatically made affidavit that Mr. Frank had never, at any time, or in any way, misused or mistreated them, and that none of them had ever known a single instance of any familiarity on the part of Mr. Frank with anyone of the female employees.

"These affidavits are in my possession.

"This is a matter of personal concern to me, and I beg that, in justice to myself and others interested in the factory, that this matter be set fairly right before the public.

"(Signed) "GEORGE W. PARROTT."

MINISTER DE LA BARRA TO GET OUT OF MEXICO

He Is Going Abroad, Believing That His Absence Will Best Serve Country.

Mexico City, May 22.—Francisco De La Barra, minister of foreign affairs, has been granted a leave of absence. He announces that he intends to go abroad. He probably will visit the United States, and later to proceed to Europe. It is understood that subsecretary Carlos Pereyra will act as minister.

Senor De La Barra's object in leaving Mexico at the present time is to separate himself from politics, in the belief that his withdrawal from the political struggle will best serve the interests of his country. He will arrange affairs in the department so that he can leave as soon as possible.

Wilson Considering Mexico.

Washington, May 22.—President Wilson made it clear today that the United States government had reached no decision as to recognizing the Huerta government in Mexico. He indicated that when recognition is extended it will be as a result of a general adjustment of conditions in Mexico.

It had been reported that with the negotiations of a loan by Mexico prospects for recognition would be improved. White house officials declined to say whether the rehabilitation of Mexican financial affairs would hasten recognition. The impression gained at the white house was that the Washington government would await the outcome of the presidential elections in Mexico.

Cowboys Invade Mexico.

El Paso, Texas, May 22.—Five American cowboys who invaded Mexico supposedly on a cattle "rustling" expedition are being sought today by United States soldiers of the border patrol along the New Mexico border between here and Douglas, Ariz. The Americans were engaged in a skirmish with Mexican cowboys. Horses were shot from under two of the invaders, and it is said one of the Mexicans was shot.

BODY OF H. M. FLAGLER VIEWED BY THOUSANDS

St. Augustine, Fla., May 22.—Thousands of people viewed the body of Henry M. Flagler "casket as it lay in state in the rotunda of the Ponce de Leon hotel. The bronze casket is banked with flowers. Opportunity to look once more upon the body of the octogenarian millinaire will be afforded tomorrow morning. At 8 o'clock tomorrow afternoon the mass services will be conducted by Rev. G. M. Wardlaw, pastor of the Palm Beach Presbyterian church, assisted by Rev. J. N. McGonigle, of Miami, and Rev. A. S. Badger, of St. Augustine. The body will be placed in the mausoleum of the Flagler Memorial church of this place.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 22.—Mrs. Flagler this morning, at St. Augustine, requested that no mourning decorations be placed on any public or private buildings and that all signs of mourning, as far as possible, be omitted. Her wishes will be carried out.

The mayor of Jacksonville this morning issued a proclamation asking that all business cease for a period of five minutes tomorrow, beginning at 3 o'clock, in honor of the memory of Mr. Flagler. The postmaster general has ordered the St. Augustine postoffice closed at that hour. Governor Trammell is expected to issue a like proclamation this afternoon.

NEGRO'S LIFE SOUGHT BY MOB OF NEGROES

Kansas City, May 22.—A mob of 500 negroes surrounded the Flora avenue police station in the negro quarters of Kansas City today, howling for the death of Wasley Robinson, one of their race, who to last night confessed, the police say, to slaying his wife and daughter with a hatchet last Saturday night. After a determined stand by the police the negro was hustled through the mob in a motor car and carried to police headquarters.

The negroes, armed with clubs, approached the station and one of their number was sent in to demand that Robinson be turned over for them to "deal" with. A squad of police was sent from headquarters but when it arrived the emissary had been thrown into the street and the patrolmen regularly stationed at the precinct office had, with drawn revolvers, cowed the mob.

Jennie Hill, a negress, whom in his confession Robinson is said to have implicated in the murders, was confined in the women's cells in the same police station. Her screams could be heard above the mob's cries.

NO AMENDMENT TO INCOME TAX

Senate Democrats to Disregard Protest of Mutual Insurance Companies — Cotporters Object.

Washington, May 22.—No amendment to the income tax section of the Underwood tariff bill is likely to be proposed by the state finance committee or democratic caucus according to leaders considering that part of the bill.

Senators Williams, Shively and Gore have the income tax in hand. Though their committee room is piled high with protests and suggestions from many sources, pressure is believed to have been well handled and the objections made to it in its original form are thought to have been sufficiently met in amendments before the bill passed the house.

Among the loudest protests coming now are those from mutual insurance companies conducted for profit, but the house amended the original bill as relating to insurance companies and insurance policies and the senators on the finance committe believe it is sound. Complaints from railroad and other holding companies that the law will tax them twice on dividends paid are reported to have been held unsound by members of the committee.

Questions for Republicans.

Senator Penrose filed today to get up his resolution proving for publication of the list of tax questions to manufacturers proposed by Senator La-Follette, the senate going into executive session before the tariff was reached. Early in the day the finance committee majority framed an amendment to the resolution proposing a longer list of questions, in which some of Senator LaFollette's queries were included. The resolution will relate to production, raw material and transportation costs here and abroad; proportion of tariff duties which cover production cost differences here and abroad and the proportion which amounts to a manufacturer's profit and other such problems.

Senator Simmons said there would be about 25 questions in all, but he will withhold the list until he is certain the republican leaders intend to bring the matter up again.

Vice President Marshall called on the finance committee during today and discussed with him the tariff and its prospects in the senate. The vice president said he did not discuss rates or schedules and Chairman Simmons said the conference was merely informal and had to do with the handling of the bill when it reached the senate floor.

Raw Ivory and Cotton.

Discussion o fthe tariff on raw ivory proposed in the Underwood bill before the Johnson subcommittee disclosed an unusual situation. Representatives of cotton exporters in protesting against the proposed 25 per cent duty on corks, declared it would break up their barter trade in cotton with African tusk dealers. For years they have been shipping thousands of dollars worth of cotton to the African traders and bringing back in payment therefor ivory tusks which they in turn sold to piano manufacturers. It was claimed that with a duty on ivory, Italian cotton traders would get this business.

Amendment of the bill in regard to the importation of feathers also was considered by Senator Johnson's subcommittee. Importers asked that importation of feathers of game and pest-birds be allowed. They suggested also that the prohibition be postponed until the president should proclaim that England, Germany and other countries had forbidden importation to those countries. Representatives of the Association for the Protection of Birds opposed both amendments. Edward Howe Forbush, state ornithologist of Massachusetts, declared that the importation of plumes for the millinery trade would mean the letting in probably of all birds of plumage with the exception of the hummingbird.

The bird lovers pointed to the unsuccessful attempt to eradicate pelagic sealing by international agreement as a warning against an attempt to protect birds by international agreement.

Senator Stone's sub-committe had before it representatives of silk and woolen manufacturers protesting against those schedules. The subcommittee expects to finish the silk and wool schedules next week. The metal schedule is all ready for report to the full committee and it is said in many of the items reductions from the Underwood rates have been made. Senator Williams' sub-committee is still is considering the "anti-dumping clause" which provides for an extra duty, not to exceed fifteen per cent on imports sold here at less than the foreign price. The criticism of the provision is that it omits the free list articles from this penalty duty and the committee is inclining to the opinion that the clause should be amended to include it.

DISCORDANT SOUNDS FOUGHT BY CHICAGO

Chicago, May 22.—Chicago's great orchestra of discordant sounds, arising from rattling elevated trains, locomotive whistles, river boat sirens, automobiles and the quawkers, pests of peddlers was placed on trial today and found guilty of being a nuisance. The sentence was immediate suppression, and all the city ordinances regulating whistles and other noises, have been ordered revived. Many of these anti-noise laws have been regarded as "dead letters."

Doctors, lawyers, merchants, managers of hospitals and others appeared before the anti-noise committee of the city council health committee today and the result was an agreement that the city administration would make every effort to reduce noises in the streets and especially in the downtown district.

"We shall try to make Chicago one of the quiest big cities in the country," said Mayor Harrison.

Mott and Wilson Confer.

Washington, May 22.—John R. Mott, international secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, had a conference today with President Wilson. Mr. Mott, who has just returned from the Far East, had been offered the post of minister of China, but declined. Mr. Mott said he did not feel at liberty to say what he discussed with the president, but it is believed they talked about men suited for diplomatic work in the Orient.

Burke Relics Bring $7,600.

London, May 22.—A porcelain teapot, cream jug and two cups and saucers, once the property of Edmund Burke, the Irish orator, were sold at auction today for $7,600.

Body Mangled He Cracks Jokes With Surgeons

Remarkable Nerve Displayed by Young Brakeman Crushed Under Wheels of Passenger Train.

The mere fact that his left leg had been amputated just below the hip, his right foot crushed, and a hole knocked in his head, did not prevent R. C. Potts, a Western and Atlantic railroad brakeman, from joking with surgeons as he was rushed over allpery streets in Patterson's auto ambulance to the hospital.

Potts leaped from freight train No. 1 of the Western and Atlantic, leaving the terminal yards, directly in the path of the passenger train which reached the Union station shortly after 8 o'clock last night. Surgeons on the ambulance marveled at Potts' courage and the fact that he did not once lose consciousness even after being placed on the operating table at the Elkin-Watkins cantiorium.

At midnight reports from the hospital were that Potts was resting easy. The surgeons say that he might recover.

The accident occurred a short distance from the Magnolia Street bridge. Potts was riding on the caboose. He jumped off to catch a freight engine to take him back to the Union station. He says he did not know the passenger train was near, and stepped in its path when it was only a few feet away.

Fall Seen by Porters.

Porters on the passenger saw the accident and caused the train to be stopped. Potts was dragged from under one of the coaches. His head and his face was covered with blood.

"Hurry up fellows," he shouted. "It's mighty uncomfortable under here."

By torchlight it was seen that Potts was badly injured. His left leg dangled when he was lifted, and his right foot was completely severed. He was brought to the Forsyth street bridge on the rear end of the observation car. An ambulance was waiting to take him to the hospital.

Straighten out that left leg," Potts requested of one of the railroad yard men who helped to lift him to the stretcher.

Didn't Groan. Just Grunted.

He grunted when the surgeon in charge of the ambulance attempted to move the limb.

At the sanitarium, surgeons declared that the fact that both limbs had been twisted several times, and the arteries crushed, was the only thing which saved Potts from bleeding to death.

Potts is 27 years old. He is married and has a family living at Adairsville, Ga.

AUSTRALIAN MEAT FOR SAN FRANCISCO

San Francisco, May 22.—One hundred and ninety-two thousand pounds of meat, veal, beef and mutton, arrived at this port today on the steamer Sonoma from Australia. This is the first shipment of meat received from the Antipodes in the campaign to combat the high prices asked by local wholesalers. The meat is consigned direct to retailers. George F. Richards, who represents the Australian shippers, was a passenger on the Sonoma. He comes to this country to investigate the facilities for storing frozen meats on this coast and also will go to Chicago.

Speaking of the shipment of meats to this country from Australia, Mr. Richards said:

"We are prepared to ship all kinds of meat from Australia to the United States and an unlimited amount of butter just as soon as we find it can be cared for. We can place Australian meat and butter on this market, at present transportation rates, so that it will sell at a good profit, at a considerably lower figure than the prevailing rates."

BENNETT NAMED HEAD OF SOUTHERN SOCIETY

Washington, May 22.—Representative Richmond P. Hobson tonight resigned as president of the Southern Society of Washington, because of the action of members who voted down a proposal to enlarge the society's scope and help remove sectionalism. The resignation was accepted and Claude W. Bennett, chairman of the executive committee, has been chosen in his place. Mr. Hobson's term as president would not have expired until next December.

In his letter of resignation Mr. Hobson said he remained a member of the society and would work to promote its interests. He said he believed it would become a power for useful service to the south, and to the country at large in promoting the welfare of the south and by advancing southern ideals.

Among the new members elected tonight were Senator and Mrs. Hoke Smith, of Georgia; Senator James K. Vardaman, of Mississipi, and Colonel and Mrs. John G. Capers, of South Carolina. Among the vice presidents of the society are Speaker Champ Clark and Senators Randell, of Louisiana, and Fletcher, of Florida.

ASSISTANCE REFUSED BY A DROWNING BOY

Asheville, N. C., May 22.—Cletus Justus, 18-year-old son of Robert Justus, a prominent contractor, was drowned in an artificial lake near Hendersonville today. He sprang into the water, and when a companion saw he was about to drown offered assistance, which was refused. The body was recovered.

RUSSELL ATTACKS COLUMBIA TEACHER

Bitterly Criticises the Recent Utterances of Professor Montague Before Barnard Class.

Declaring that the "near fool or man who is not sure of the divine existence, shall not be permitter to say it in class rooms that are supported by Christian endowments," President R. M. Russell, D.D., of Westminster College, Pa., delivered a strong blow at Professor Montague, of Columbia university, in his address at the two hundred and fifth of the Presbyterian assemblies which have been held in Atlanta for the past eighty years.

Owing to bad weather, and the fact that two of the assemblies had adjourned, only a small crowd of half a thousand was on hand to hear the program on the church and education.

Rev. R. Vinson, of Austin, Texas, and Rev. J. Balcom Shaw, of Chicago, addressed the audience on "Education and Christian Leadership," "Church Obligation to Its Student Constituency," both stressing Christian education.

President Russell, of Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa., lead up to his remarks on Professor Montague by saying that he had read certain extracts which he has later verified, of one of Professor Montague's farewell lectures to a senior class at Barnard.

The Sentence which President Russell quoted was a follows:

Quotes Sentence From Russell.

"Morality should be taught altogether apart from speculation on religion. Anyhow, we are in this world to clean up as much as possible, and it does not behoove us to think much about immortality and God."

Lowering his voice, Dr. Russell said: "And this is the kind of instructive that is offered in some of our leading universities. Surely we are Davidic enough in our thought to say 'the fool hath said in his heart there is no God,' and are ready to go a step further and resolve that the near fool or man who is not sure of the divine existence, shall not be permitted to say it in classrooms that are supported by Christian endowments."

Continuing, Dr. Russell delivered one of the masterful addresses of the assemblies. "Inventors who are proud are simply drunken with folly," he said. "For what are our greatest inventions and most splendid achievements but meager copying of the works of God.

Low-Thinking of Scientists.

"It is easily manifest that scientists are not prevented from God by high thinking, but by low thinking. Men are never hindered from accepting the gospel of Jesus Christ because they are too much given to the scientific mood, or too sternly guided by the dictates of reason, but rather because they narrow science to the realm of thinking, but by low thinking. Men are as real as matter, that earth is overarched by heaven, and the hunger of the soul for God as real and prophetic of reality as any other instinct.

"Many institutions under care of the state or other corporate management do not recognize God by devout chapel services of praise, by provide for the teaching of His word. At a large state university I know of a chapel service which consisted of a hymn, more or less devotional, then the reading of a poem, and a selection from Gulliver's travels. If young Americans are mental Lilliputians, and their journeys but the dream career of a Gulliver, then let this method become universal.

"But if a God is a reality, then let us say so and not ellminate from student life one of the highest functions of the soul, which is worship."

SEARCH IS MADE FOR TAX DODGERS

census takers. The school census, it is said, will aid the assessors in keeping in touch with dodgers.

Chairman W. H. Humphrey has called the finance committee to meet Friday morning at 10 o'clock. The committee will begin considering demands from the various departments. The first thing the committee will do will be to make up the schedule of hearings.

Chairman Humphrey says that the maximum amount of new money to be apportioned in the June sheet will be $120,000.

Bank Assessments Increased.

Included in that sum is $12,500 derived from the increased city tax assessments on banks amounting to $1,000,000. The increase on the banks is the largest in the history of the city. Total taxable property, real and personal assessments amounts to $4,000,000. Unofficial reports are to the effect that realty assessments will be $13,000,000 more than last year, making a grand total increase of $16,000,000.

The increase, at the tax rate of $1.25 per $100, means a net increase of $200,000 from this source alone. With other increases the tax committee hopes to make up the total of $250,000 to be dumped into the apportionment sheet.

Still Not Enough.

With all the increases, including the water receipts, the finance committee will not have enough to go around.

The Whitehall regrading project which council passed up favorably with a recommendation to the finance committee for an appropriation to start the work this year, will require $30,000.

The school board wants $75,000 for the English Commercial High school. Grady hospital wants an additional $25,000 to complete the nurses' home, for which the finance committee provided $26,000 in January.

And on top of it all, Chairman Orville H. Hall has asked for $50,000 for street improvement. He says it is absolutely necessary for new streets.

Money Demands for Schools.

The demand for school improvement will be heavy; in fact, the revenue of the city could be exhausted if all the requests are complied with. School buildings to cost $6,000 each are wanted in the eighth and ninth wards. Residents in the Howell park neighborhood want a $6,000 fire house building. The Davis school demands $50,000 and a like sum is asked for a negro school in the Pittsburg district. The cramped conditions at the Inman and Grant park schools has made it necessary for the school board to ask for $15,000 for each place.

The school board will meet Saturday morning to make up its budget. Members of the board say there is no way by which an estimate can be arrived at as to what the department will ask for.

You men who have been paying a good custom-tailor's price for clothes have a pretty clear idea of what good tailoring is. You're just the man who will appreciate the quality in the clothes we make.

You'll find our suits at $25, and more, very unusual values; the money-saving may not appeal to you; but you're probably too good a business man to pay $40 or $50 for anything you can buy for $25 or $30.

You'll appreciate the saving of time; you've learned that time is one of the elements of success.

We make good clothes to sell at $18 and $20; you'd better look at $25 suits and upward. Our mark in a garment is a small thing to look for, a big thing to find.

CLASSED AS "CROOKS" MEMBERS OF CONGRESS

Bench Warrant for Page, Who Has Violated Order Suspending Sentence.

Washington, May 22.—A bench warrant was issued today by the district supreme court for the arrest of Henry W. A. Page, a New York linen merchant, under suspended sentence of five years for criminally libelling Chairman Clayton, of the house judiciary committee. The warrant was sent to New York to be served.

Page was placed on probation after conviction last May, but a few days ago sent by express to President Wilson a communication of 113 typewritten pages attacking his prosecution. His alleged grievances date back to some unsuccessful tariff actions in the New York state courts.

HE CALLED CONGRESSMEN CROOKS

New York, May 22.—A warrant was received here from Washington today, calling for the re-arrest of Henry W. A. Page, a wealthy English linen merchant, convicted in Washington a year ago for libelling members of congress. At that time he was sentenced to five years imprisonment and fined $1,000, but was released under suspended sentence. The order for re-arrest, it is understood, was issued on the ground that he had violated the terms under which sentence was suspended, by writing of his grievances to the president, attacking the department of justice.

Page's conviction came after his circulation of pahphlets, calling congressmen "crooks." He believed the courts had treated him unfairly in giving school in the custody of their three children, after granting her a separation. He memorialized congress, asking for the impeachment of certain New York judges, and when the house judiciary committee to which his petition was referred gave him no satisfaction, he mailed to member of both houses pamphlets containing a lurid attack on various congressmen. Page could not be found at his office this afternoon, and it was said he was out of town.

Diplomatic Bill by Bacon.

Washington, May 22.—Senator Bacon, chairman of the foreign relations committee, introduced a bill today for separate ministers to Paraguay and Uruguay, and for an ambassador instead of a minister to Spain.

JAPAN TO PRESS FIGHT TO ANNUL CALIFORNIA LAW

Reply of United States Not Pleasing to the Japanese Government—Equal Treatment Is Demanded.

NATURALIZATION RIGHTS WANTED FOR JAPANESE

United States, in Reply to Japan, Takes Position That California Law Does Not Violate Existing Treaty.

Tokio, May 23.—The United States government's reply to the Japanese protest in regard to the California alien land ownership legislation, in saying that it does not involve any violation of the treaty between the United States and Japan, has caused great disappointment in official and other circles here.

The Japanese foreign office considers it unsatisfactory, as it does not mention any intention on the part of the government at Washington to take official steps to nullify the California act.

The Japanese foreign minister is urging upon Viscount Chinda, Japanese ambassador at Washington, the necessity of pressing the Japanese interpretation of the American Japanese treaty.

Secretary Bryan's proposal to refer the question to a referendum in the state of California is not received with favor here, as the result is considered doubtful.

War Talk Not Understood.

The war talk emanating from Europe and reaching here by cable regarding the controversy between Japan and the United States on the land ownership question, is not understood in official and other circles here. The atmosphere is calm and great reserve is shown.

Some of the newspapers, however, have begun to speak out more freely. The daily newspaper, The Osaka Mainichi, finds amusement in what it calls the American fear of Japanese aggression. It says: "All Japan wants for the Japanese is equal treatment with white men. Japan's progress has reached the point where she will no longer consent to discrimination being shown against her subjects."

The general hope is expressed here that the reply sent from Washington is not America's final word, especially as the United States government, by its intervention in California inspired the belief here that it would adopt strong measures in behalf of the Japanese.

It is believed in Japan that the difficulty will eventually be settled by diplomacy, but the question of how Japan is to proceed next is a puzzle to the authorities. Japan is a stranger to the technicalities of American laws and does not see her way clear to take the initiative in a lawsuit, while the national patriotism prevents a formal request that naturalization be granted, which would mean the virtual expatriation of Japanese subjects.

Demand for Naturalization.

Public opinion, however, seems to be in favor of a demand for naturalization as the most feasible means of satisfying Japanese prestige.

The opinion in official circles is that the nation has been led to expect some action by Washington and if nothing should be done from that quarter, then the Japanese public, which has remained calm and dignified, is liable to become greatly irritated.

"Foreigners say that the Japanese are super-sensitive and super-proud," said an official today. "This may be true. We do not care for the material losses incurred. The present issue strikes us on our most vulnerable point, namely, our national honor, and any attack on that is like plunging a dagger into our vitals.

"Of course, it is idle to talk war, but I think in justice to the Japanese, it should be pointed out that the quiet expectancy of the people is more important than the irresponsible war talk indulged in by the jingoes last month. If the Americans understand this, they will likewise understand why the failure of a response to the Japanese appeal is likely to result in some estrangement of the traditional friendship between the United States and Japan."

POSITION OF UNITED STATES REGARDING CALIFORNIA LAND

Washington, May 22.—The basis of the state department's contention that the California alien land act does not in terms violate the treaty of 1911 was a careful scrutiny by all the lawyers of the cabinet of the language of the law and the treaty.

Save upon the single point that in depriving Japanese in California of the right of inheritance to real estate, they concluded there was no ground for complaint.

Another view of the expressed declaration in the Webb law that it was not to be construed as abrogating any treaty provision, which thereby appeared to assure the Japanese against unlawful escheatment of their property, it was felt that the national government could do nothing less than admit that the framers of the Webb act seemed to have succeeded in their purpose to make it proof against attacks in the courts.

Officials gathers from the Tokio dispatches that the negotiations are drifting into the stage of pure disputation, where the international lawyers on both sides will have ample opportunity to exercise their full resources in determining the exact relation between the California law and the treaty of 1911. Some expect that the result will be an invocation by the Japanese government of the right of arbitration guaranteed by the special treaty of 1908.

It was learned that up to the present stage no formal suggestion has come from Japan that the American naturalization laws should be amended so as to admit Japanese to citizenship in the United States.

Records of the state department fail to show that such a request ever has been made by any other country. Officials here insist that the status of citizenship may be conferred by the state upon any individual or class it pleases, and that it is something that may not be demanded as a right. Further, it was pointed out that the United States has entered into no naturalization treaties designed to benefit Americans resident in other countries.

COMMENCEMENT AT SHORTER COLLEGE WILL START TODAY

Rome, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Commencement exercises of Shorter college will begin Friday afternoon, when the class in expression will present the Shakespearian play, "As You Like It," in the "Shorter Forest," an ideal sylvan amphitheater. Costumes from Philadelphia have been rented for the occasion.

On Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 the departments of art and domestic science will give exhibits and demonstrations of the work of the past year.

The annual concert will be given in the college chapel Saturday evening at 8:15. Madame Almy and Director Stanley, together with the musical faculty, have been hard at work during the year with the instrumental part of the program, which will be the most brilliant in the history of the institution.

Dr. W. A. Hogan, of Agnes, Ga., a brother of Professor L. R. Hogan, of the Shorter faculty, will preach the commencement sermon Sunday morning and again at night to the annual meeting of the Y. W. A.

The annual meeting of the alumnae will be held Monday morning, and at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at Maplehurst, the home of Dr. and Mrs. Van Hoose, the class exercises will take place. The Eunomian and Polymnian societies will clash in champion debate Monday evening, the subject being, "Resolved, That the presidential term should be for six years instead of four."

Dr. E. M. Poteat, president of Furman university, will deliver the baccalaureate address Tuesday morning, and Tuesday evening the faculty, their wives, alumnae and friends of the college will gather in the dining room of the dormitory for a sumptuous banquet, which will be the last event of a most successful year.

Mayor's Home Robbed.

Rome, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—The police are looking for a mysterious second-story marauder who recently robbed the home of Mayor Yancey, securing a $300 gold watch and while being searched for entered four homes and stores in the same night, committing minor depredations in each place. The burglar, who was discovered by Rev. C. W. Rowe in his home and who shot at the minister, was robed in a white dress or gown. In one home he invaded the room of a young lady, who awoke, but he told her he was her father and she did not know the difference until the next morning.

Adventist for Missions.

Washington, May 22.—Creation of the European division conference, including Europe, the Russian and Turkish possessions in Asia, Persia, Arabia, Afghanistan and that part of Africa not included in Rhodesia, British Central Africa and South Africa, was effected at today's session of the Seventh Day Adventists at Takoma Park, Md. This action marked a new departure in the organization of the denomination. The fiftieth annual report of the statistical secretary showed the number of communicants now to be 114,206.

B. S. WALKER'S CASKET HEAPED WITH FLOWERS

Funeral and Interment to Be Held at Monroe at 1:30 This Afternoon.

IOWA MAN DYING FROM SAME POISON WALKER TOOK

Sioux City, Iowa, May 22.—After swallowing three bichloride of mercury tablets last night, Robert Palmer, member of a wealthy family of Sioux City, today is waiting slow death from the poison.

Palmer was in a hotel when he took the tablets. He rushed into the streets shouting, "I've done it! I've done it!"

A policeman overpowered him, and he was sent to a hospital, where it was reported that Palmer was resigned to his fate.

Macon, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—The body of B. Sanders Walker, whose death occurred this morning after a fight for life that had attracted the attention of the entire country, will be interred in the family burying ground at Monroe tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 o'clock.

The funeral party will leave Macon at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow morning over the Central of Georgia for Madison, and will occupy a private car. At Madison the car will be attached to the regular train on the Georgia railroad and will be taken as far as Social Circle, from where a narrow gauge railroad runs to Monroe, arriving there at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

At Monroe the funeral party will proceed direct to the cemetery, where a short funeral service will be conducted by Dr. E. C. Dargan, pastor of the First Baptist church, and Dr. W. N. Ainsworth, of the Mulberry Street Methodist church, both of Macon.

The pallbearers will all be directors of local banks and younger business men of the city. They are: Charles B. Lewis, E. B. Harrold, W. Henry Jones, Robert W. Barnes, R. K. Hines, Edd Taylor, Jr., Bruce C. Jones and H. B. Erminger, Jr.

Today the body of Mr. Walker was placed in a silver gray casket and, during the day, hundreds of beautiful floral offerings were received. It is stated that it will be necessary to begin conveying the flowers to the train at 4:30 o'clock in the morning in order to get all of them there by the time the train leaves.

Today Mrs. Walker was almost prostrated with grief, though it is expected she will be in such condition by morning that she can accompany the body of her husband to Monroe.

Ex-governor Daniel, of Georgia, who lives at Monroe, has given to the Walker family half of his burial lot in the cemetery at Monroe and it is there that Mr. Walker will be buried beside his grandfather and his great-grandfather.

Mr. Walker was B. Sanders Walker the fourth, his father being the only one of the four now living.

At the residence tonight a committee from the Macon Gun club, of which the dead man was a member, sat up with the body at the Walker home.

Treatment a Secret.

Though there has been great interest in the form of treatment that was used in Mr. Walker's case, the physicians who attended him refuse to make it public.

It is understood that the history of the case will be published in one of the large medical works for the benefit of the medical profession of the country.

The family has refused to give out the contents of any of the hundreds of telegrams that have come from all over this country, and even from Europe.

"PLUCKING BOARD" APPOINTED BY DANIELS

Washington, May 22.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels today appointed the "plucking board," which is the dread of all officers of insecure standing below the grade of admiral. This board is charged with the duty of retiring from the active list five captains, four commanders, four lieutenant commanders and two lieutenants, providing that number of vacancies has not been caused during the year. The purpose is to stimulate promotion.

The board, which will meet in Washington June 2, will include Rear Admirals Aaron Ward, W. H. H. Southerland, A. M. Knight, C. McR. Winslow and F. E. Fletcher, with Commander Pollock as recorder.

Baron Ashbourne Dead.

London, May 22.—Baron Ashbourne, who was lord chancellor of Ireland three times under consecutive governments, died today suddenly after a seizure while walking in Hyde park. He was 75 years of age, and was the originator of the land purchase legislation for facilitating the sale of Irish holdings to tenants.

WITH CHEERFUL MOTTO U. P.'S CEASE LABORS

Many Are Moved to Tears by Reports of Devoted Men and Women in Foreign Lands.

Adopting for its motto for the coming year "The world for Christ and a tithe of our incomes for missions," the fifty-fourth annual assembly of the United Presbyterian church came to an eventful close Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, to convene next May in Newcastle, Pa.

Unlike the other assemblies, the United Presbyterians have proceeded through their entire course with unruffled calm—"we are United Presbyterians, remember," Professor John A. Wilson, of Pittsburg, remarked at the aonly time when the least friction ever arose in the assembly.

In his parting message, Dr. Robert M. Russell, the moderator, said that he was glad to see that "the fool that rooks the boat" had not been present in their assembly.

Many Moved to Tears.

After the roll call, it was stated that the expense of the assembly in paying railway transportation of commissionaries was $10,614.20.

During the morning session foreign missions was the topic of the day. The commissioners were moved to tears as they heard from the men and women on the firing line of Christendom of their struggles and victories in foreign lands, which only a little while ago had been dead to the Savior.

"The greatest forward step in the history of the church," according to Moderator Russell, was taken yesterday when the "missionary and efficiency" committee of the United Presbyterian church was organized to act as a clearing house for all of the funds of the church, absorbing the old ways and means committee, which has been in existence for the past fifty years, and the more recent million-dollar committee.

Besides creating a spirit of Christian stewardship in the various congregations, the new committee will organize and direct annually a "direct member" canvass for church funds, and will see that pledges are paid promptly and forwarded to their proper destination without delay.

Representatives of each of the boards of the church will compose the new committee, and as one of the commissioners remarked, "It will be a man's work."

The committee recommending the new committee is composed of W. R. Sawhill, W. E. McCulloch, D. Glenn Moore, J. H. Stavely and A. H. Calderwood.

The following ministers and business men from the various boards who will serve from one to three years, compose this new committee:

From committee on appropriations, Rev. W. I. Wishart, three years.

From board of foreign missions, Rev. C. R. Watson, one year; Rev. M. G. Kyle and George Inness, two years; F. O. Shang, three years.

Board of home missions, Rev. W. E. Furvis, one year; J. A. Reed, two years, and Samuel Young, three years.

Board of freedmen's missions, Rev. J. A. Duff, one year.

Board of church extension, Rev. M. M. Patterson, two years.

Board of education, Rev. J. J. Kyle, one year.

Board of publication, Rev. John McNaugher, one year.

Board of ministerial relief, Rev. J. C. Scouller, three years.

Church-at-large, Rev. G. E. Raitt, one year; W. W. Miller, two years, and J. J. Porter, three years.

Dr. R. L. Miller Resigns.

Dr. R. L. Miller, of Pittsburg, telegraphed his resignation as editor of The Christian Union Herald, which church publication was criticised by the publication committee on the allegation of disobeying instructions from the general assembly. Stating that no fault had been attached to Dr. Miller, the assembly refused to accept the resignation, and the committee on publication indorsed his work.

That Touch of Pasteurine

The Best Part of the Shave

Welcome to this new comfort in the shave. It is the finishing touch that makes you forget the razor that pulled, the burning sting of a tender skin, the hide you lost, and those "bleeding blunders"—cuts. In fact your shave gets to be almost a necessary pleasure when you wind up with

Pasteurine

The Cleansing, Soothing, Healing Antiseptic

After the razor has done its work and you've washed and dried your face, apply PASTEURINE—pure or diluted with cool water. It quickly heals those tiny skin abrasions and bleeding cuts and destroys possible germ infection.

PASTEURINE hardens the too tender skin and eradicates unsightly blemishes of the complexion.

PASTEURINE allays razor irritation and prevents that "itchy stiffness" of the skin. It makes your face feel cool, comfortable and flexible.

10c, 25c, $1.00. At Drug Stores

If your druggist does not have PASTEURINE send us 10c for large trial bottle and literature.

JUMPING AT CONCLUSIONS.

Alabama must soon settle the question as to whether it will renew the convict lease system or adopt the road system in operation in Georgia. In search of light, The Montgomery Advertiser hits on a recent card to The Constitution purporting to describe the brutality of a drunken guard in one convict camp to sustain an indictment of the whole system. Our contemporary argues that if such conditions obtain in one camp they may be general; therefore the Georgia system isn't wanted in Alabama.

There is yet to be invented an infallible system for the handling of convicts or prisoners. Occasional brutal guards will be found in any field of convict activity, for convicts must be watched, and all guards are not model men. The best penitentiaries in the land furnish instances of isolated brutality. In every walk of life exceptional abuses are inevitable; it is even of record that they cropped out in the circumscribed circle of the Disciples. But as one swallow does not make a summer, so one barbarous convict guard does not characterize the entire system. Georgia challenges investigation of her penal system. The prison commission is composed of upright and earnest citizens, who go to the limit of their authority to stamp out cruelty and inhumanity. No state can make a better showing in this respect. And if all the states were judged by single instances of cruelty the humanity of the whole United States would be under arraignment.

The final test is in general results obtained and in the verdict of those watchful people who live in the state and who are in a position to know. Judged by this standard and by the opinion of numberless unbiased visitors to Georgia, the penal system of this state is not excelled by that of any other American state, all things being considered. The system is not perfect, as no penal system or any other kind of system is perfect. But Georgia believes by actual experience that by putting convicts on the roads she has solved the convict problem. She has done so humanely, because she gives them healthful occupation that at the same time serves the commonwealth; they are transformed into producers without competing with free men.

Alabama should investigate personally the operation and effects of Georgia's method of handling convicts. There would then, we believe, be little disposition to cling to the private lease system. Certainly anyone who proposed that step in Georgia would qualify for appearance before a commission in lunacy.

In this connection Mr. Philip Weltner, who furnished the card that created the comment from The Advertiser, elsewhere explains his attitude in the matter. He shows that his citation of Georgia's system has been wholly distorted, and that it would be absurd to indict an entire system because of one abuse that might crop out in any system. Very conclusively he pays tribute to the "fundamental sanity" of the Georgia system. Mr. Weltner's statement should calm those Alabamans who have used his articles, as he says, to "bolster" the private lease system in that state. His enthusiasm over Georgia's system is a clinching argument for the use of convicts on the public roads and against the private lease method.

IN WEST VIRGINIA.

The senate will no doubt agree to a federal probe of the industrial disturbances in West Virginia. The probability now is that a thorough investigation will be authorized and the country will know the truth one way or the other.

Two directly conflicting stories have come out of the troubled mining district. One has been to the effect that the governor of the state, controlled by the employing interests, having declared martial law, has also winked at all manner of unconstitutional practices and abuses. The governor makes answer that he has saved the state from anarchy and has in no wise exceeded his authority.

The nation is entitled to know the exact state of affairs. And it is not to be expected that the truth will be revealed by a partisan inquiry. Certainly, if one is authorized it should not be made the pretext for playing politics.

THE MEXICAN LOAN.

About the most decisive news that has recently come from Mexico is the announcement that the provisional government is about to successfully conclude negotiations for a foreign loan of $100,000,000. The assent of the Mexican congress is forthcoming, and it is said the money is to be supplied by French and British bankers.

Upon the manner of expending this sum will very probably depend the fate of the republic. If it is squandered the present regime will be at an end. If it is wisely invested the government may be established on an orderly basis. Subversion of the public funds is said to have led to the downfall of the Manchus in China. The same thing may overthrow Huerta in Mexico.

THE COMMERCIAL ATTACHE.

Secretary Redfield has proposed a governmental innovation which bears promise of definitely increasing the foreign trade of this country. He would create "commercial attaches" just as we now have military and naval attaches, and assign them to important points abroad. These men would be given the duty of studying trade conditions, devoting all their time to the work, and of periodically making reports to this government.

The idea is an excellent one. We learn now of foreign opportunities and the equipment needed to meet them through two channels only: The diplomatic and consular service, and the reports of representatives of private exporting houses. The information from private representatives is not, of course, available to the public use and obviously the data gathered by consular agents while valuable lacks the exact quality that might be expected of experts and of men who gave all their energy to the task of study and investigation.

Every student of the foreign commercial trade comments that America is not now getting its share because we fail to familiarize ourselves with the field. In this respect we fall far behind the other nations. Most of our great exporting houses appear to go on the theory that markets abroad are the proper dumping grounds for the unused surplus at home. It rarely occurs to them that the man in South America or the Orient may have peculiarities, just as the people in various sections of our own country, and that in order to cater to his trade it is essential to discover these peculiarities and supply goods to fit them.

It is certain that the trade wars of the future are going to be waged on a scale of increasing intensity. As production of raw resources increase production of manufactured goods will increase also. Markets in every part of the world will be broadened as the railroad opens up now wild sections and the peoples of the earth gain in purchasing power. If the United States is to win its portion of the greater business of that day, it must study the requirements of that business to the end of intelligently supplying them. The commercial attache, or a similar enlargement of the functions of our consular service, would be of material aid in that direction.

RESTRAINING THE FLOODS.

Governor Brewer, of Mississippi, is preparing to call an extra session of the legislature of that state to consider a bond issue for strengthening the levee system.

If the disaster of the current year is not to be repeated, every state traversed by the Mississippi and its tributaries should take similar steps. The amount thus spent would be infinitesimal by the side of the toll taken by disastrous floods. For the loss of the current year, for instance, work could have been begun on a permanent levee system extending the entire stretch of the great river.

It is time, also, that the federal government took more intelligent cognizance of the situation. The problem has distinctly its interstate character, since the people affected live in almost three-fourths of America. The states should aid themselves, it is true, but they should also have the aid of the government.

It is possible for a well-meaning man to talk Peace to death.

Think of 364 lawyers in congress, and all wanting to be heard—even if it takes all summer.

"There are no automobiles in heaven," says a Tennessee preacher. With wings to fly, we shan't need them.

Nearly all the good offices are gone, but the prayer of the outside seekers is—"Just any place, Lord!"

The Far Travelers.

On the road to Happiness we're faring day by day,
And still it seems a dream to us, and ever far away;
On the valley's violets Life turns its wistful eyes,
But "Happiness is where the hills are climbing to the skies."

(So the voices whisper,
Sweet-toned and low,
Over lives that kiss and cling,
And graves beneath the snow.)

On the road to Happiness, where shall we rest?
Is it an illusive star that shines on heaven's breast?
Is it where no discord this earthly music mars,—
A memory of a violet—a dying dream of stars?

(Still the voices whisper,
Sweet-toned and low,
"O for lips that kiss and cling,
And graves beneath the snow!")

Choose Ye!

By Philip Weltner, Secretary Prison Association of Georgia

There are men who habitually pass by on the other side. There are men who can calmly see little children going to their doom, men so self-centered that the cry of need brings no answer to their lips, and distress remains unrelieved. They condemn as exaggerations, and more often as falsehoods, the stories they will not trouble themselves to investigate. Such men make destiny possible, because they consistently refuse to interfere with the operations of vice and crime. Injustice and oppression they view as abstractions. Blind to everything but personal interest, they condemn the unfortunate, and describe as fitting lots the burdens they refuse to lighten.

Let the damned stay damned. Let the girl who has started to destruction speed her halting steps. Let the misguided follow the blind alley of their folly. Away with those who cannot stand alone. There is room only for the strong whose strength is spent in pushing others down. Such is their creed disguised in a thousand forms. Red-handed they plead personal purity; greed-stained they prate of charity; pushed to the wall, they claim the eminence of "practical men;" touched to the quick of personal interest, they are loudest to lay claim to the very privileges of liberty they were readiest to deny.

"Nothing I have read so far meets my approval." Such is the gratuitous condemnation passed on what has been appearing in these columns by a prominent politician of Georgia. It is sincerely hoped that he has not read much. The hope is not entertained in fearfulness for the measures themselves. God will not be hoodwinked out of the right; justice will prevail. The hope is expressed for the man himself. For as he deals by the least of his brethren, so shall it be meted out unto him. The little girl he now passes by, to whom he would not lend a helping hand, may spread the contagion of her vice to his own door. The young man who, thoughtless of his trend, marched into the death grip of sin, may some day raise his hand to strike down him who did not care.

The training school for wayward girls means only this, that the state thinks them worth the saving.

Probation means only this, that hundreds of young men can be better helped outside the confines of a penitentiary than in it.

Prison reform means only this, that prisons ought to save out of human wreckage as much as there is left to rescue.

Is there any room for disapproval here? For the sake of God, make men; for the sake of Satan, make beasts. "Choose ye!"

THE OCEAN.

By GEORGE FITCH,
Author of "At Good Old Siwash."

(Copyright, 1913, for The Constitution.)

The ocean is a huge and highly seasoned body of water which surrounds the land.

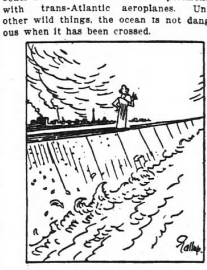
There is so much ocean that no matter in what direction we travel we are bound to run into it sooner or later. The ocean is the one thing in the world which does not have to be conserved or protected. Men are using up the land, blasting down the mountains, tampering with the rivers and stealing the forests. But the ocean can take care of itself. Man has been fooling with the ocean for 6,000 years, but there is just as much ocean now as there was, and it is in just as good condition, though perhaps a little dirtier around the edges. It has been pretty hard on man, however.

The ocean is very salty and contains oysters, clams and lobsters. Heated up with a little pepper and butter, the ocean would make pretty fair table d' hote soup.

There are really five oceans, but they are all closely connected, like the competing portions of a busted trust. A medium sized ocean is 3,000 miles across and wet all the way. It is also five miles deep in places. Persons who cannot swim are cautioned against wading out too far into the ocean. Eventually the water is almost certain to get beyond his depth.

The ocean is strongly impregnated with whales, codfish, icebergs, crabs and other foreign matter and is very useful to man. With the aid of a fish line and plenty of bait a man can live for years on what he pulls out of the ocean. It also serves mankind by dividing the old world from the new. Owing to the long sea voyage involved, there has been very little bickering between the two hemispheres. If Europe had been divided into nations by oceans, instead of imaginary lines, the death rate in the last 1,000 years would have been much lower.

It once took two months to cross the ocean, but fast steamers now do it in five days. Men also cross in sailboats, motor boats and row boats and are experimenting with trans-Atlantic aeroplanes. Unlike other wild things, the ocean is not dangerous when it has been crossed.



"Eventually the wader is almost certain to get beyond his depth."

The ocean when calm is a beautiful and friendly sight, but when it roars in the tempest and its white crested waves roll mountains high, its awful majesty strikes man dumb with awe and reminds him that after all he is only a tiny morsel in the jaws of eternity. This is the principal mission of the ocean—to keep man humble and ready to take suggestions from the Almighty.

Whereat We Remark, Oh, Piffle

Miss Delia F. Dana, granddaughter of Henry W. Longfellow, poet, will soon be married to Robert H. Hutchinson, of Philadelphia, a fellow socialist. Miss Dana is an ardent advocate of trial marriages and the ceremony incident to her marriage to Hutchinson will be unique in that neither makes any vows. Her brother, Edmund Trowbridge Dana, married Jessie Holloday, English portrait painter, with a ceremony of his own devising. Miss Dana will use the same ceremony, slightly revised.

BRANTLEY SOUNDS WARNING IN CRISIS OF OUR NATION

Detroit, Mich., May 22.—(Special.)—Impaling the muckraker and the demagogue, scoring the forces that are undermining the constitution and attacking the courts, William G. Brantley, of Georgia, last night told the annual convention of the National Association of Manufacturers that the business men of America must awake to the fact that republican government was today facing probably the gravest crisis in history. Delegates who knew Mr. Brantley's long record in the public service and his reputation as one of the best minds in the house of representatives before he retired and entered the practice of law in Atlanta, looked forward eagerly to his address. They were not disappointed. From the first, he did not hesitate to tell the business men they had been remiss in active interest toward good government. His outlining of the tendency to ignore and gradually break away from the constitution was listened to with the deepest attention. When he told of the vagaries that threatened the integrity of the trusts and the universal denunciations and muckraking that created distrust in government, he was roundly applauded.

Against Free Canal Tolls.

He also declared business was entitled to a clear definition of the Sherman law, advocated repeal of the Panama canal free passage act, expressed doubt regarding the income tax, and warned against too radical a revision of the tariff. His address was easily one of the most striking of the entire session.

Regarding the income tax, Mr. Brantley said:

"Business is entitled now to a modification of the Sherman law—at least to the extent of making its meaning clear and intelligible. The supreme court has been assailed for its decision in the Standard Oil case, and charged with inserting the word 'unreasonable' into the law in violation of the will of congress. I have never understood that the court did anything of the kind."

Discrimination.

Mr. Brantley doubted whether the state or nation should levy an income tax or whether it should be levied except in emergencies. He said:

"There is much to be said in criticism of the proposed method of enforcing the law, by limiting the enforcement to a small percentage of the people. The tax now proposed is intended to apply to only about 425,000 citizens, and when we remember that we are a nation more than 90,000,000 strong, with more than 15,000,000 voters, the inequality of the burden proposed becomes quite evident. To omit all incomes of $4,000 and under from taxation is to put the burdens of the government upon a select few. It smacks very strongly of socialism."

Protection.

Mr. Brantley saw nothing "inherently" wrong in the doctrine of tariff protection, pointing that every tariff law yet passed was protective, and that it was a question of degree and not name. He held that revision must proceed carefully lest injury be done both producer and consumer. He said about the cost of living:

"In framing tariff legislation at this time, we should not be too enthusiastic over the proposition that we can substantially reduce the cost of living by reducing the tariff. It has been but a few short years ago that free silver was urged upon us as a remedy for too cheap living. The prices of commodities then were far below the figures of today. Living then was too cheap, or at least it was urged that the low price of commodities and the lack of money left the people unable to supply themselves with necessary commodities, despite their cheapness. If we will compare the tariff schedules of that day with the tariff schedules of today, we will find but little difference in them, and no difference to justify the increase in the price of commodities that has taken place. If we will look about us we will see that the increased cost of living is world-wide, and it is manifest, from our own experience as well as the experience of the world, that some other cause than the tariff must be primarily responsible for our high cost of living."

Might Hurt Nation.

He reviewed the gold and other theories as bearing on the cost of living, and said further:

"A careful consideration of these facts should lead to the inquiry whether a too radical cut in established tariff rates, while doing the ultimate consumer but little if any good, might not result disastrously to the real producer, and not simply to him, but to our country, in crippling its resources and strength."

He believed too great a lowering of the tariff walls would injure the farmer and turn him to the cities.

The Crisis.

Mr. Brantley spoke of the rehabilitation of the south, and stressed today's crisis as follows:

"Macaulay, the great Englishman, made a prophecy that the end of this republic would come with the conflict between those who have and those who have not, and he fixed upon this century—the century in which we live—as the one that would witness the downfall of the American republic. Thomas Jefferson, upon the other hand, declared ours to be the strongest government in the world because, he said, it was the only one in which, at the call of the law, every man would respond and place himself beneath the banner of the law. His belief was grounded upon the faith that the spirit of the law would ever remain deeply implanted in the heart of the American citizen. We are approaching the time when the faith of one or the other of these great men must be vindicated by us. To which one shall the vindication be given?"

WELTNER CRITICISES MISUSE OF PRISON REFORM STORY

Editor Constitution: I have noticed from certain extracts that the newspapers of Alabama are using my articles to bolster up the convict lease system of that state.

My articles stand for themselves, and, taken on their own bottom, furnish no justification for the use to which they have been put. Criticism of our Georgia system will in nowise justify the lawmakers of Alabama to conclude that Georgia, in the abolition of the convict lease, is dissatisfied with the change.

I know the convict lease system in Georgia. I know the convict lease system of Alabama. There is not a living soul in Georgia who would willingly go back to the convict lease.

The Prison Association of Georgia stands for progress, and not retrogression. Never will Georgia again jeopardize its convicts by placing them at the mercies of a system which puts a premium on private exploitation.

There is much room for improvement in the administration of Georgia's county road camps. What there is yet, to be done will yet be accomplished. Instances of brutality call for intelligence, and not hysteria. We mean to correct the evil and save the good. The great fundamental sanity of the system of Georgia must be preserved. Steering clear of its errors, it may well be emulated by Georgia's sister state.

PHILIP WELTNER.

Must and Ought

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

The inspiration of Accomplishment is first the inspiration of Necessity. We do things and we do our best things when we are driven to because—we Must. Back of every Fighter and back of every Achiever is this silent little Commander. To cultivate the feeling that you Must do what you Ought to do is to develop the sense of duty—to get Habit on your side.

Make yourself Feel that you Must do what you Ought to do.

Cultivate the Must and Ought spirit and you eventually if not immediately call to your side one of the greatest factors in success—Willingness to Act and to Do.

Make yourself Feel that you Must do what you Ought to do.

If you cultivate this feeling you will never canker your Soul nor rot away your Initiative. Mixed with the dire necessity will come a dominant feeling of Love for what you do and the dream of a Glory that shall Radiate with Joy and Helpfulness not alone your own life, but that will give to your Work itself a luster that cannot fail to lighten and add Glory to countless other people.

Make yourself Feel that you Must do what you Ought to do!

Personal satisfaction, even, is little worth while unless cumulative. The man does not live who is wholly selfish. Must drives a man to his job or to his idea, but the fast-breeding germ of Compensation, massing before his eyes, vitalizes a Purpose and makes it come out to all the world as something for every one.

Make yourself Feel that you Must do what you Ought to do.

But cultivate a Foundation Must as well as a Superstructure Must. You Must give a certain number of hours to yourself or your Employer today, but make them hours of Service, not clock watching and the toiling off of time to no Results.

President Wilson is strictly on the job, but there is no evidence that he has learned the trick of the Taft smile.

It seems that the only way to revise the tariff is to sit up with it all night and then spend the day.

The Bryan mind goes on forever. It even talks in its sleep.

Senator La Follette is doubtless a great admirer of his own voice.

Recollections of an Old-Timer.

Editor Constitution: I saw in the press dispatches the Gate City Guards of civil war fame were to make a tour of the country. In 1861 I was a member of company B, Rock City Guards, 104 men, and only 8 now living, so I thought of the original Gate City Guards would not be many living. I well recollect the Gate City Guards in our campaigns with Generals Lee and Stonewall Jackson in the mountains of West Virginia, in the summer, fall and winter of 1861-62.

I first saw Atlanta July 6, 1852. From 1842 to 1847 father and I made three trips overland from Lynchburg, Va., to Nashville, requiring three weeks' journey. He died in 1852, and I went to Lynchburg, via Atlanta, Augusta and Charleston, sailing from Charleston to Wilmington, thence rail to Richmond and canal to Lynchburg (1,100 miles to Lynchburg to reach 600 miles), yet the journey was made in six days. The Western and Atlantic railroad was, as all southern railways at that time, was on stringers and T rail, and had many wrecks; yet, on account of speed, 20 miles an hour, there were few passengers hurt. I remember, near Big Shanty, we went off the track, and our engine, "Velocity," turned over on side, but no other damage done. I was a boy 12 years of age, but I knew velocity meant swiftness. The "Velocity" was of the same type of the "General," now in the N., C. & St. L. railway depot at Chattanooga, and is looked on by thousands of people annually. It is a part of the history of this country.

It has been my pleasure to visit Atlanta many times since the war, and wonder at her pluck, enterprise, energy and advancement.

Tired of Whitewashing.

A lower Illinois editor, declaring he has become tired of wielding the whitewash brush in the matter of obituaries, has decided to reform and tell the truth just once. His comment on the death of a well-known citizen in the community follows: "Died—Aged 56 years 4 months and 13 days. Deceased was a mild-mannered pirate, with a mouth for whisky and an eye for booty. He came here in the night with another man's wife and joined the church at first chance. He owes us several dollars for the paper, a large meat bill, and you could hear him pray for six blocks. He died singing: 'Jesus Paid It All,' and we think he is right—he never will anything himself. He was buried in an asbestos casket, and his many friends threw palmleaf fans in the grave, as he may need them. His tombstone will be a favorite resting place for hoot owls."—St. Louis Republic.

Think of the time they are wasting in the vain effort to patch up the broken republican party.

NO DECISION MADE IN COL. HUFF'S CASE

Judge Grubb Reserves His Opinion, Which Will Not Be Made Public Until Next Week.

Macon, Ga., May 22.—Colonel W. Huff, on trial before the United States district court on a charge of contempt, offered no defense and after arguments by his counsel and the prosecuting attorney, Judge Grubb announced that his decision was reserved and would not be made public until next week.

Attorney General Felder, counsel for Colonel Huff, argued that his client was not in contempt in that the alleged offending letters were sent Judge Emory Speer at his residence and were not meant to influence court decisions.

District Attorney Oliver D. Street, of the Northern Alabama district, conducted the government's case.

A great crowd attended the trial today expecting that the court would render an opinion in the case.

Col. Huff on Stand.

Judge Grubb overruled the motion for dismissal. The defense then called Colonel Huff to the stand.

"The letter you sent to Judge Speer, how was it sent?" he was asked.

"By messenger, and it reached his home about 7:30 o'clock in the evening," was the reply.

"Do you know whether or not Judge Speer was holding court at the time?"

"No, sir."

"What is your understanding as to where Judge Speer holds court?"

"In this building."

"Did you have any information that Judge Speer was preparing to leave Macon?"

"Yes, I understood he was preparing to leave the next day for Nova Scotia and that he had already purchased his ticket."

"Did you send the letter to him as judge or as a man?"

"As a man."

"Why did you send the letter addressed to Hon. Emory Speer and to his residence?"

Thought Court Adjourned.

"I used the title 'Honorable' as a matter of courtesy and sent it to his home because I would not have sent it here under any circumstances. My knowledge was that court had been adjourned. I want to state that three months had elapsed from the time I wrote the letter until it was delivered to Judge Speer."

"What did you think the status of the bankruptcy litigation was at that time?"

"I thought it had all been determined as far as I and my children were concerned."

"What was your information as to what portion of the over-surplus from your estate belonged to you?"

"When I rote the letter Judge Speer had already fixed the portion my children were to receive and my understanding was that what was left was to come to me. That surplus was being exhausted and I explained to the judge how it was being done."

"In reference to the letter. Did you pen that letter and send it to the judge with any intention of influencing him in any decision in your case?"

"When I wrote the letter I expected it to have a very bad effect on me and what I would receive. I had no intention of influencing his decision in my favor nor had I any desire to intimidate him. I thought his rulings had always been against me, and I wanted the judge to know, as a man, that I was keeping close tab on him. I was not dealing with him as a judge."

NORTHERN BAPTISTS SEND 35 MISSIONARIES

Detroit, Mich., May 22.—At today's sessions of the Northern Baptist convention thirty-five new missionaries were appointed for foreign fields, and they will sail for their destinations during the coming summer and winter.

Divergence of views regarding the method for final vote on important questions caused a verbal battle on the convention floor. The debate lasted two hours, and became so heated that action on the matter was postponed until Saturday.

The finance committee reported on the progress of the $3,000,000 campaign. This movement was instituted last year to double the approximate amounts spent by the Baptist church of the northern states in home and foreign mission work.

INITIATIVE FAVORED BY FLORIDA SOLONS

Tallahassee, Fla., May 22.—The state senate committee on privileges and elections by a vote of 4 to 1, today decided to report favorably the resolution providing for the initiative and referendum in Florida. The resolution was adopted by the house of representatives by a vote of 59 to 2.

CURRENCY HEARINGS ORDERED BY SENATE

Several Republican Senators Indicated Hostility to Monetary Legislation.

Washington, May 22.—The senate agreed today to a resolution authorizing the banking and currency committee to hold hearings on proposed currency legislation after several republicans had voiced active opposition to the passage at this session of any measure making sweeping changes in the nation's financial system.

Senator Gallinger expressed the hope that no ill-matured and hastily constructed currency bill would be brought forward to occupy the summer months. Senator Bristow said the tariff should have all the attention of congress, and several others indicated plainly their hostility to such legislation at this time.

Senator Townsend made the point that currency reform is being urged at this time "to divert attention from the tariff," and Senator Newlands offered a plan for action which differs from the one proposed by the national monetary commission and those bearing the apparent stamp of prominent democrats on the house and senate banking committees.

Chairman Owen, of the senate committee, refused to submit to a verbal examination as to conferences he may have had with President Wilson about currency, and declined to say whether a bill might be pushed at this session. Senator Bacon reaffirmed his belief that such a measure should be passed, and was of the opinion that it might be expected to appear.

Senator Newlands advanced the idea that there should be reserve associations in every state of the union instead of the fifteen proposed in the monetary commission or the seventeen or twenty understood to be favored by democrats on congress banking committees. These associations, Mr. Newlands argued, should be state-wide only in extent, with a banking board to provide the central control.

Senator Owen, a member of the committee, said he was ready to go ahead with an investigation of currency subjects and with legislation. Senator Gallinger wanted to know what the committee expected to do when it began holding hearings, and pointed to the testimony taken by the monetary commission, its report and the library on finance it has collected. Senator Owen said he expected the committee to have suggestions of opinion and to make a permanent record that would be of use to Senators in framing a currency reform bill.

President Wilson heard with interest today that republican senators were anxious to be consulted in the preliminary conferences looking toward currency reform. He inquired if such an impression prevailed at the capitol, and was told by some of the newspaper correspondents at their semi-weekly conference that the wish had been expressed by republican senators. Mr. Wilson made no comment, but it was regarded as significant that Secretary McAdoo, of the treasury department, has been conferring with Senators Burton, of Ohio, and Weeks, of Massachusetts, both republicans, on currency questions.

Today the president himself talked currency with Assistant Secretary Andrew, assistant secretary of the treasury under the Taft administration. Mr. Andrew also has been in frequent conference with Senator Owen.

WISCONSIN LESSONS FOR PHILADELPHIA

Madison, Wis., May 22.—On the campus of the University of Wisconsin today Mayor Rudolph Blankenburg, of Philadelphia, pledged a renewed purpose to solve his city's problems. The mayor spoke to a large assemblage of students and the members of the delegation of 120 easterners who came here yesterday to learn the lesson of popular education as the university applies it throughout the state.

"Here is a new birth in Pennsylvania, as in Wisconsin," he said. "Our people have suffered from indifference, ignorance and selfishness. We are trying to wake out of this lethargy, and one proof of it is the fact that this delegation of over a hundred has come here to learn of how you people in Wisconsin have solved the problems that have been troubling us.

"We are going ahead to make the improvements. We will do away with the ignorance, the indifference and the selfishness all through this country, and when we finish we will be a shining light for all the world.

"People in Philadelphia have not looked at the operation of a great city as that of a corporation. Yet, we have in the city of William Penn over 1,000,000 stockholders. We are going ahead to take that corporation efficient. We have begun by banishing the politicians from the city hall."

Marketing of farm products, the benefits to the farmer of agricultural extension work, the importance of pure-bred grains, the value of pure-bred milk and the success of pure-bred live stock will be explained and demonstrated by the staff of the Wisconsin College of Agriculture tomorrow morning.

U. S. BANKERS DENY CAUSING 1893 PANIC

Washington, May 22.—Senator Smoot today presented to the senate records of the American Bankers association to answer the statement made by Senator Thomas, of Colorado, several days ago, that the cause of the panic after the passage of the Wilson bill in 1893 was the calling of loans by bankers all the country to secure repeal of the silver purchase act of the Sherman law.

Senator Thomas had read an unsigned circular and a magazine article which asserted the circular was issued at the time by the American Bankers' association, urging bankers to retire one-third of their currency circulation and call one-half their loans to bring about a money stringency.

Senator Smoot read a letter from Fred E. Farnsworth, general secretary of the American Bankers' association in reply to a letter written him immediately after Senator Thomas made his speech in the senate. Mr. Farnsworth declared the circular referred to by Senator Thomas "was a fraud and a dastardly attack on the American Bankers' association and the bankers of the country." He sent a copy of the records of the American Bankers' association proceedings for the years 1893 and 1894 wherein appeared an original repudiation of the circular referred to.

From this record Senator Smoot read that the bankers' association had their attention called to the circular before the date of publication and had been declared a fraud over the signature of E. H. Bullock, the general counsel for the American Bankers' association. The records also showed that the circular had been declared fraudulent at a meeting of the executive committee of the bankers association.

Replying to the denial, Senator Thomas declared he had read the circular published in a reputable American magazine 15 months before he made his speech and that in all the time since its publication he had never seen the statements denied. In his speech to the senate last week Senator Thomas said he had attempted to show that the panic of 1893 had begun long before the Wilson bill became a law and that it was precipitated by bankers who wished the silver purchase act repealed and got it repealed. He continued to declare his belief that the banking interests were responsible for the panic.

"I will ask the senator if he believes the circular was issued by any responsible authority" said Senator Smoot.

"Yes," said Senator Thomas, "I think if the money power in this country makes up its mind to accomplish a purpose it will resort to almost anything."

WILSON IS CRITICISED BY THE REPUBLICANS

Washington, May 22.—President Wilson was sharply criticised by republican senators in executive session today for his reported interference in the senatorial fight in Maryland, where William L. Marbury is a candidate to succeed Senator John Walter Smith for the long term. Both are democrats, and the republicans made capital of the fact that a democratic president apparently had seen fit to get into a fight between members of his own party in a state other than his own.

The criticisms were voiced during consideration of the nomination of Sherlock Swann as postmaster at Baltimore. Swann is a declared supporter of Marbury, but Senator Smith, in a speech, asked his colleagues to vote for his confirmation. In spite of this the viva voce vote was so close that the vice president declared himself in doubt. On a rising vote, Swann was confirmed.

The criticisms of the president tonight were the first made of him by senators in executive session since he entered the white house. Several republicans spoke, and a newspaper article declaring the president to favor the candidacy of Marbury was read. Senator Smith was the only democrat to speak. The session lasted half an hour. Many other postmasters and Edward K. Campbell, as chief justice of the district court of claims, and Asa Warwick, as assistant comptroller of the currency, were confirmed.

In Memory of Dr. Hale.

Boston, May 22.—A heroic bronze statue of the late Rev. Dr. Edward Everett Hale was unveiled here today by the Unitarian association. William Howard Taft and Governor Foss, Governor John D. Long made addresses. The former president told of his intimate association with Dr. Hale while the latter was chaplain of the United States senate.

EFFICIENCY SYSTEM BARRED BY DANIELS

Boston, May 22.—The so-called Taylor Efficiency System will be abolished in the navy yards of the country by order of Secretary Daniels, according to a statement made by Congressman James M. Curley tonight. The congressman was addressing a mass meeting of employees of the Charleston navy yard, where a strike was threatened recently, on account of the operation of the system.

Congressman Curley quoted Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt as saying:

"The Taylor system will not be permitted in navy yards during this administration. This is the decision of Secretary Daniels."

REPUBLICANS TO WORK TO CAPTURE CONGRESS

Leaders at Washington Plan to Unite Factions for Aggressive Campaign.

Washington, May 22.—With republican senators urging a joint senate and house caucus for immediate reorganization of the congressional campaign committee to seek the reclamation of republican power in congress next year; with progressive republicans conferring on plans of reconciliation of the divided party and members of the national executive committee assembling for a meeting here Saturday, Washington today became a beehive of republican activity.

Most significant of recent party developments since the defeat at the polls last November was the conference of republican and progressive republican senators early in the day to institute reorganization of the congressional campaign committee, which house leaders futilely have attempted for several weeks. Thirty-one senators attended the conference, presided over by Senator Gallinger, and, with practical unanimous approval, a committee of five was appointed to confer with house leaders with a view to holding a joint caucus as soon as possible to clear away the party difficulties.

It was the prevailing opinion of the senators' conference that the congressional committee should be reorganized at once with representation from the senate as well as the house, following the suggestion from President Wilson, adopted by the democrats, and that headquarters should be established, a publicity campaign inaugurated and a definite campaign policy outlined as early as possible.

To Reunite Party.

Leaders pointed to the personnel of this consulting committee as an indication of the general effort being made to reunite the party, its members consisting of progressive and regulars as well. The committee members are Senators Gallinger, Townsend, Clark (Wyoming), Norris and Jones. This five will consult with the house republicans and expect to find no opposition for a joint caucus, the house republicans having found trouble already in trying to organize the congressional committee. It choose the successor to William McKinley as chairman. Representative Gardner, of Massachusetts, recently announced his candidacy for the chairmanship on a liberal policy platform, but the expression failed to hold a caucus failed to bring out a quorum. Since then nothing has been done and the senators hope to bring about definite action.

The conciliators appoited as a result of the Chicago progressive republican conference a few weeks ago have been called to meet with Senator Cummins tomorrow to plan for presentation of their plans to the national executive committee called to meet Saturday by Chairman Hilles. The members of the conciliation committee are Senators Cummins, Crawford and Jones. Representatives Cramton, Michigan; Rogers, Massachusetts; Anderson, Minnesota, and former Governor Hadley, of Missouri. Mr. Hadley probably cannot get here for the meeting tomorrow.

Wishes of Progressives.

The conference will outline to the executive committee the desires of the progressive republicans for a party convention this fall to reorganize the party and reform its machinery relating to the selection of delegates and conduct of contests. In line with these ideas Senator Sherman, of Illinos, today introduced in the senate a bill which would provide that delegates to national conventions of all political parties be elected at primaries. Under its terms the delegates would be chosen according to the vote cast at the preceding election for candidates of the respective parties and state primary laws would govern. A policy such as this will be urged by the liberal leaders before the national convention which they believe will be called by the national committee. They expect the executive committee Saturday to call a meeting to consider the plan.

The members of the executive committee are John T. Adams, Iowa; Fred W. Estabrook, New Hampshire; J. P. Goodrich, Indiana; Thomas A. Marlow, Montana; Alvah H. Martin, Virginia; Thomas K. Neidrinkaus, Missouri; S. A. Perkins, Washington; Newell Sanders, Tennessee; Charles B. Warren, Michigan; Charles S. Wallis, Illinois; Ralph E. Williams, Oregon, and Charles D. Hilles, ex-officio chairman of the national committee.

The progressive wing of the party favors a convention for re-arrangement of the apportionment with a view to strengthening the apportionment among republican states. A proposition is urged either to increase arbitrarily the representation in the northern or reduce the representation in the southern states. There is difference of view among the committeemen as to the necessity or wisdom of a convention for this purpose and some of them contend that the national committee itself has power to change the apportionmnet.

STATE NORMAL BOARD MEETS THIS AFTERNOON

1 KILLED, 1 SHOT BY HART BROTHERS

J. M. Harnage Is Fatally Wounded and Son Dead as Result of Shooting in Colquitt County.

Moultrie, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—News of a fatal shooting affray in the lower edge of the county reached the city today at noon from Berlin. A phone message stated that Jim and Jerry Hart, young saw mill men living in Brooks county, had fatally shot J. M. Harnage and instantly killed a son of Harnage.

The trouble seems to have started from the Harts hauling lumber and logs to their mill by the Harnage place over the public road, which was objected to by Harnage, who ordered them to desist. This morning the two Harts were hauling a couple of loads of lumber from their mill to the railroad at Berlin and were met by Harnage and his son, who were armed with shotguns.

When the difficulty was over young Harnage was dead, his father was dying by the road with his brains oozing out, and Jerry Hart was shot and cut seriously. While Harnage is still living, the doctors say there is no chance for his recovery. How seriously Jerry Hart is injured cannot be ascertained.

The sheriff has gone to investigate the matter.

CAPITOL GOSSIP

Radium in Stone Mountain.

It is possible that there is radium in the vicinity of Atlanta, but it is hardly probable that it will ever be commercially available. Reports had reached the state geologist, Dr. S. W. McCallie, that there was supposed to be radium in the feldspar which is found in considerable quantities around Gainesville.

In discussing the report yesterday, Dr. McCallie said:

"I never heard of radium being obtained from feldspar. It is made from pitchblende, which is usually found in combination with lead or zinc. This mineral has been found in Colorado and radium obtained from it in small quantities. There is radioactivity in uranophane, however, considerable quantities of which is found in Stone Mountain. We have several specimens of it in the museum here in the capitol. Uranophane contains uranium, a metal closely allied to radium, which is generally found with it. I doubt, however, whether the redium could be extracted from uranophane in any such quantities as to make it commercially available."

Governor Poses for Movies.

A real governor in a motion picture play—that will be the privilege that playgoers will have when the pictures which were taken in Atlanta yesterday are thrown on the curtain. A northern moving picture concern which has been making films here for the past month, had a scene of a war play which is laid on the capitol grounds. The picture was taken just in front of the Gordon monument. The play begins with the war and continues down to the present time. As they needed a governor to give plausibility to be scene, Governor Brown kindly consented to pose. Mayor Woodward and Walter Taylor, city clerk, had their pictures taken in another incident in the same play some days ago, posing in front of the Grady monument.

Postmaster Appointments.

Representative Sam Tribble, of the Eighth congressional district, was a visitor to the capitol yesterday. He talked freely of the recent postoffice appointments and the annoyance that they were giving to congressmen. There has been a lot of good-natured bantering of each other by his colleagues on the subject, he said. Gordon Lee, particularly, had come in for his share in connection with the Rome postoffice.

Tom Hudson Out Again.

Former Commissioner of Agriculture Tom Hudson, who had been ill for some days with appendicitis in a local sanitarium, was able to be out again yesterday, and was warmly greeted by his friends, who congratulated him on his recovery.

UNABLE TO PAINT, THEY TURN "CUBISTS"

San Francisco, May 22.—Members of the Bohemian club who cannot paint and are proud of it, will hold an exposition June 4 of "cubist" art. The success in the east of the post impressionists encouraged Bohemians who had never drawn anything but a salary to try their hands.

For the past fortnight $0 of the very latest "cubists" have been hard at it with floor paint and varnish.

"Justice," by Supreme Court Justice Melvin, will show a waterfall of white-wash tumbling over the revised statutes. He believes it to be the most confusing painting ever attempted.

For U. S. Armor Plant.

Washington, May 22.—Senator Ashurst introduced a bill today to appropriate $1,600,000 for a government armor plate plant. The bill would have a board of three navy officers seek a site and report within three months after the passage of the bill. The section would begin within six months. Secretary Daniels, who favors a government armor plate plant, has conferred with Senator Ashurst on the bill.

CAMINETTI IS NAMED FOR IMMIGRATION CHIEF

Washington, May 22.—President Wilson today nominated Anthony A. Caminetti, of California, for commissioner general of immigration.

For postmasters these nominations were made:

Cassius L. Byrne, Ardmore, Okla.; Joseph M. Poulnot, Charleston, S. C.; Pierre H. Fike, Spartanburg, S. C.; A. H. Buie, Ennis, Texas.

MARKED IMPROVEMENT MADE BY STUDENTS

Penmanship Dept. Crichton-Shumaker Business College, Kiser Building, Makes Good Writers.

Messrs. Crichton and Shumaker recognize the fact that the ability to write a good business hand is indispensable to the young man who hopes for advancement in the business world. They have therefore spared no pains to make their Penmanship Department one of the most attractive features of their school.

The accompanying specimens show the wonderful improvement made by one of their graduates. Many students declare that what they learn about penmanship alone is worth twice the entire amount paid by them for tuition.

Festival at Snap Bean Farm Will Be Brilliant Event

At 4:30 p. m. Saturday the gates at Snap Bean Farm—the home of Uncle Remus—will swing open for the incoming crowds that will visit this picturesque place to see the annual crowning of the May Queen, an event that is looked forward to with much pleasure. The platform and throne has been erected for the royal family awaiting the lovely queen, Miss Katherine Vickers, and her fair maids of honor with their retinue of lovely attendants. The children from the seventh and eighth grades in the public schools will furnish sweet and inspiring May songs, under the leadership of Miss Harralson, the music director of the public schools. Hundreds of children will be on the grounds, well trained, for the exhibition of the May pole drill and dance. All children are invited to come under the ribbon and join in the grand march, bringing flowers as a tribute to the beautiful queen, after which they will be given standing room within the inclosure there to witness the coronation ceremonies.

No pains have been spared by the ladies of West End to make this festival the most brilliant of its kind ever enjoyed.

Visitors to the city will enjoy one of the greatest treats of their lives if they attend. Take Whitehall and West End cars, get off at Culberson street, right at Snap Bean Farm; West Fair and Ashby cars and get off at Gordon street and walk one block west, or Walker and West View cars, get off at Lawton street and walk one block south. All are cordially requested to come and bring some friend. A few of the active chairmen of committees comprising the enterprise are Mrs. Brevard Montgomery, Mrs. J. S. Nichols, Mrs. W. M. Jenkins, Mrs. F. P. Heifner, Mrs. H. L. Crumley, Mrs. J. S. Purser, Mrs. J. E. Collier, Mrs. George Sharp and Miss Lella Culberson.

Refreshments will be served. Ice cream, lemonade, candy, cake, old-fashioned gingerbread, sandwiches and other good things. Attractive booths will be arranged. "Fish Pond," "Hover Bee Tree," "Miss Meadows and the Gals," "Sign of Tar Baby," "Thimble Finger Well" and many other places familiar to the readers of Uncle Remus.

Come out and see the gaily colored May poles clustered around the white coronation throne, with its hundreds of happy children smiling in the shadows of the Wren's Nest.

Afternoon Tea.

The tea given yesterday afternoon by Dr. and Mrs. Vassar Woolley at their home on Spring road, was a delightful occasion in compliment to their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Seydel, of New York, and a large company of Mrs. Seydel's friends in Atlanta, when she was Miss Mildred Woolley, called to welcome them.

Artistic decoration with the season's flowers was a pretty feature. Paul Neyron roses were used in the drawing room, a profusion of yellow daisies filled the living room with their light.

In the dining room the table center piece was an energne with sweet peas at the base, and Dorothy Perkins roses above. Pink candles burned in silver candlesticks, and dainty detail of color was pink. Sweet peas were massed, too, on mantel and cabinets.

Punch was served on the porch, which was picturesque with palms and hanging baskets, and vases of corn flowers and daisies.

Mrs. Woolley was gowned in pink crepe embroidered, and Mrs. Seydel was charming in white chiffon draped over a heavy white lace, which was embroidered in Persian colors.

Receiving with Mrs. Woolley were Mrs. Seydel, Mrs. James Jackson, Mrs. W. D. Ellis, Jr., Mrs. Rutherford Lipscomb, Mrs. John M. Slaton, Mrs. Hugh Willet, Mrs. William Hurd Hillyer, Mrs. Ronald Ransom, Mrs. W. N. Sloton, Mrs. Charles J. Haden, Mrs. John M. Moore, Mrs. Shepard Bryan, Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Hugh McKee, Mrs. Edward Brown, Mrs. G. M. Woolley.

Miss Virginia Lipscomb, Miss Bertha Moore, Miss Margaret McCarthy and Miss Marion Woolley served punch.

To Miss Boyd.

Miss Eloise Oliver's bridge party yesterday afternoon was a pretty compliment to Miss Carolyn King and her guest, Miss Boyd, of Nashville.

Nasturtiums were used with ferns in effective decoration, except in the dining room, where sweet peas in all their colors were massed on the mantel and formed also a gay centerpiece for the handsomely appointed center table. Delicious refreshments were served in the dining room after the game.

The bridge prizes were silk stockings.

Miss Oliver wore a becoming gown of white lace draped with pink chiffon. Miss Boyd wore pink silk crepe and her hat was a becoming model in pink. Miss King wore pale blue crepe, embroidered in white, and her blue hat was trimmed with pink roses and a white paradise.

Miss Oliver's guests were: Miss Elizabeth Boyd, Miss Carolyn King, Miss Adeline Thomas, Miss Frances Connally, Miss Josephine Storey, Miss Susie Hallman, Miss Courtenay Harrison, Miss Marion Goldsmith, Miss Hildreth Burton Smith, Miss Martha Francis, Miss Aurelia Speer, Miss Katherine Ellis, Miss Elizabeth Morgan, Miss Emily Winship, Miss Annie Lee McKenzie, Miss Sarah Rawson, Miss Marion Woodall, Miss Majorie Brown, Miss Margaret Hawkins, Miss Nancy Hill Hopkins, Miss Clifford West, Miss Harriet Orr, Miss Penelope Clark, Mrs. Charles Shelton, Jr., and Mrs. William Schroder.

Miss Elizabeth Morgan will give a matinee party Monday for Miss Boyd, and on the same afternoon Mrs. Charles B. Shelton will entertain at tea at the Driving club.

"The Country Fair."

It is hoped that many will attend the delightful "Country Fair" to be given today (Friday, May 23) on the lawns of Mrs. Pardee and Mrs. Traylor, 19 Ponce de Leon. A country store, flower and vegetable booths will be there, while ice cream and cake, peanuts and lemonade, delicious sandwiches, etc., will be sold. There is to be an art gallery under the charge of Mrs. Satterlee and Mr. James Wardwell has the management of the "Old Homestead Quartet." Mrs. H. N. Hurt is general chairman, and under her capable management the success of the fair is assured. A small admission will be charged.

For Mrs. Wheeler.

Mrs. Barry Burt Wheeler, of Birmingham, the guest of Miss Hennie Franklin, was the guest of honor at a pretty bridge party given yesterday afternoon at the East Lake Country club by Miss Isabell Wilson and Miss Ethel Wilson. The prizes were a coral bracelet in a pink brocade jewel box, a silver half spoon and a Vantine jewel box containing gold pins. Twelve guests enjoyed the game.

All-Day Sewing.

The ladies of Trinity church will have an all-day sewing next Wednesday, May 28, in the Sunday school room, for the benefit of the Orphans' home. All the members are urged to come, bring their lunch and bring garments or cloth for the orphans.

Phi Delta Theta Luncheon.

A number of the visiting members of the Presbyterian assemblies in convention in Atlanta who are members of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity were delightfully entertained by the Atlanta Alumni association of the Phi Delta Theta at its weekly luncheon held Thursday at the Piedmont.

The regular luncheon is held at 12:30 each Friday, but due to the fact that many of the Presbyterian commissioners had to leave Thursday night the luncheon date was changed for the week. There are some twenty-five or thirty of the visiting commissioners who are Phis, and representatives were present from various parts of the country.

Among the visitors were:

Rev. Samuel S. Palmer, of Columbus, Ohio, an alumnus of Wooster university, '87; Rev. J. T. Henderson, of Chicago, Wabash, '81; Rev. R. L. Erwin, of Houston, Texas, Trinity, '85; Rev. David M. Skilling, of St. Louis, Washington and Jefferson, '88; Rev. Charles L. Chalfant, of Boise City, Idaho, Pennsylvania, '89; Rev. Henry L. Little, of Springfield, Mo., Indiana, '91; Rev. S. C. Dickey, of Winona Lake, Ind., Wabash, '81; Rev. C. L. Over, street, of El Paso, Texas, Franklin, '97, and John G. Chapman, of Sycamore, Ala., textile engineer and a graduate of Georgia Tech, '09.

The resident members who attended were: Alfred C. Broom, president of the Alumni association; W. A. Speer, Welton O. Marshburn, F. S. Montgomery, Frank O'Keeffe, J. C. Gentry, F. M. Gillespie, G. C. Middlebrooks, F. V. Carter, Jr., W. P. Coles, Fred Houser, Vernon Stiles, W. F. Shallenberger, Tommy Stout, P. M. Peteet, Jo Winship, Norwood Griffin, L. W. Gray and Charles E. Choate.

Sorority Meeting.

An interesting meeting of the Atlanta Alumnae of the Alpha Delta Phi Sorority was held Monday afternoon at Carnegie library. New officers were elected and much enthusiasm was displayed in keeping up fraternal ties.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. John A. Perdue, president; Mrs. R. K. Rambo, first vice president; Miss Nell Waldo, second vice president; Mrs. William T. Asher, secretary; Miss Laurian Johnson, treasurer; Miss Anna Quillian, corresponding secretary; Miss Sarah Lu Evans, reporter.

Much interest was shown in the general convention to be held at Chicago in June, and it is anticipated that the Georgia girls will be well represented.

The next meeting of the Atlanta Alumnae of Alpha Delta Phi will be early in the fall and it was decided to have that meeting partly social, at which large attendance is expected.

Informal Bridge Party.

Mrs. Andrew Calhoun entertained informally at bridge yesterday afternoon at her home on West Peachtree street for her guest, Miss Mary Grant, of Nashville.

Roses and Japanese poppies decorated all of the apartments except the dining room, where sweet peas were effectively used, the centerpiece of the daintily-appointed tea table being a plateau of sweet peas. The plates were silk stockings and the guest of honor drew a picture frame. Those who played bridge were joined by a few other guests for tea.

Lunch Room.

The following menu will be served today at St. Anthony's lunch room:

Salad—Potato, chicken, shrimp, cucumber, tomato.

Sandwiches—Tomato, tongue pimento, ham.

Extras—Sliced tomatoes with mayonnaise, stuffed peppers, creamed potatoes, green peas, hot rolls.

Dessert—Strawberry shortcake, ice cream and cake, gelatin and whipped cream.

Hot coffee, hot tea, iced tea, ginger ale.

Double Wedding.

Preston, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—A double wedding at the home of Mr. Jim Dukes was held yesterday. The parties were his daughter, Miss Emma, and Professor J. G. Seay, and her cousin, Miss Mayvan Harrell, to Dr. Stone, of Doerun, Ga. The happy couples left here for Atlanta, and from there to Mr. Seay's home in Kentucky.

Banquet to the Press.

The National Conservation exposition has issued invitations to a banquet to be tendered to the Press of the United States, Saturday evening, May 31, at 8 o'clock, Knoxville, Tenn.

Third Ward Club Entertains.

In spite of the inclement weather a fair audience greeted the artists who last night gave a delightful entertainment at the Woman's Club building.

The floral decorations were unusually attractive, palms and ferns forming a background for masses of cut flowers. A hedge of pink rambler roses made a miniature "footlight" across the front of the stage. A pretty sentiment was expressed by the use of the prize silver loving cups for vases, one holding the club flower, baby sunflowers, and both tied with the club colors, gold and brown.

Four pretty girls, Misses Hallie and Mary Crossland, Miss Irene White and Miss Margaret Ennis, acted as ushers.

The program was of more than uncommon merit. Miss Edith Couch played the overture, rendering Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream" in a most charming manner.

Miss Annie Laurie Langford sang a number of beautiful selections.

Miss Berenice Horton gave a series of brilliant dramatic readings. Miss Elizabeth Swaffield playing a soft accompaniment on the piano.

As a fitting number Miss Horton gave an impersonation of how "Miss Ceely Took the Cake," in costume.

Mrs. Starbuck's Bridge Tea.

Mrs. John Starbuck was hostess at a pretty bridge party yesterday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Grady Estes, a recent bride; Mrs. Charles Terry and Mrs. Kiphart, of Cincinnati, the guests of Mrs. L. L. Horner.

The house was beautifully decorated with roses, artistically arranged. The prizes were correspondence cards, and a gold hatpin. The guests of honor were each given embroidered handkerchiefs. After the game tea was served in the dining room. The tea table was covered with a cluny lace cloth, and pink roses formed the centerpiece of the table. There were sixteen guests.

Mrs. Selden's Tea.

Mrs. George Kearsley Selden entertained informally at afternoon tea yesterday, the occasion a delightful one, assembling twenty guests to meet Mrs. Mary Armstrong Cooley, a bride-elect.

Miss Isabell Clark, of Augusta, the guest of Miss Eloise Stewart, and Miss Beatty, of Ohio, the guest of Mrs. Harry Troutman. Receiving with the house and her charming group of honor guests was Miss Anne Selden, of Washington, who is spending some time with Mrs. Selden.

The apartment had artistic decorations in sweet peas in all their colors and in white carnations, and the hospitality of the occasion was most happy.

Mrs. Selden wore a lacy lingerie gown and Miss Selden wore taupe chiffon.

To Mr. and Mrs. Seydel.

In compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Seydel of New York, Mrs. W. D. Grant will entertain at dinner Sunday evening.

Mrs. Bun Wylie will entertain at tea for Mrs. Seydel Monday afternoon, and on Tuesday Mrs. George Forrester will give a matinee party. This afternoon Miss Louise Watts will entertain at bridge.

Peanut Hunt.

There will be a peanut hunt on Mrs. Claude Shewmake's lawn, 606 West Peachtree street, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, given by Circle No. 7, of the First Methodist church, of which Mrs. Laura Wyatt is chairman.

Tickets 10 cents. All children are cordially invited to come.

Students' Recital.

At the Barili School of Music on Saturday afternoon a recital will be given by Miss Edith Dunson, vocalist, and Miss Elizabeth Hancock, pianist. They have prepared a delightful program.

Executive Board to Meet.

The executive board of the Atlanta Woman's club will hold its last meeting on Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Important business is to be transacted and a full attendance is urged.

Cake Sale.

Mrs. J. P. Allen will hold a cake sale Friday and Saturday at 73 Peachtree for the benefit of St. Anthony's church fund. Home-made cakes of all kind will be on sale. Phone orders taken, Ivy 7216.

MISS EUPHA TOMLINSON WEDS J. FRED DARMAN

Waycross, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Although they planned to announce their marriage of yesterday on Sunday, it leaked out here tonight through friends of the contracting parties that Miss Eupha Tomlinson, of Americus, and Mr. J. Fred Darman, whose home is at Richland, were married yesterday at Americus, Rev. Mr. Bivins performing the ceremony.

The couple were members of a party that left home supposedly for the baseball game, and before going to the game the marriage was performed. Parental objections are said to have been the cause for the action of the couple and the announcement of their marriage will come as a surprise to their friends.

Miss Tomlinson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Tomlinson, and is a popular member of Americus society.

GROWING CROPS VASTLY HELPED BY HEAVY RAINS

"Local showers" promised for Thursday came with a vengeance at 7 o'clock in the evening, when for ten minutes Atlanta experienced as hard a rain as has fallen here within the past two months. The rain came down in sheets, and was so blinding as almost to make street car traffic impossible.

The rain came after one of the most humid days of the year, when the temperature, while not going below 80 degrees at any time, appeared to the average citizen to be well up in the nineties.

"It's the humidity in the atmosphere that causes the heat to become so apparent," said the weatherman in discussing the many complaints from those who were on the streets during the day.

For today showers are promised again, and by tonight the air should have cooled off several degrees. Many hard rains have fallen in various parts of Georgia during the present week, and farmers report their crop conditions as much more favorable than during the drouth. Reports from Alabama also show that a hard rain fell throughout the greater part of the cotton belt, and that the planters are rejoicing over the break in the dry spell, which had threatened to destroy the cotton before it could come up.

AT THE THEATERS

"The Deep Purple."

(At the Atlanta.)

Tonight "The Deep Purple" will be given at the Atlanta by Miss Billy Long and her associates. It will also be seen at tomorrow's matinee and tomorrow night. It has made a tremendous impression in Atlanta and is creating much talk. Next week the Atlantans will have their own choice presented in "St. Elmo," which they voted the greatest play ever presented in stock. This play has been well cast and rehearsed, and is sure to be received with enthusiasm. Seats are now selling for the week.

Keith Vaudeville.

(At the Forsyth.)

Friday and Saturday matinee and night performances at the Forsyth will include the engagements of a combination of vaudeville talent superior to any attraction the burg theater has offered since the renewal of the vaudeville policy.

Gallagher and Fields offer a comedy sketch that is totally unlike the usual run of things, and if there is a better trick violinist than John Geiger, he has never been seen here. Gillette's monkeys would make an Indian laugh, and Josephine Dunfee possesses just the right voice for a classy success.

For the coming week the headline feature will be Maggie Cline, the world famous Irish queen. Madden and Fitzpatrick in "The Wanderer;" the great Howard, the Scotch ventriloquist, and Caesar Nesi the American Caruso, are among the features.

"A Trip to Joyville."

(At the Bijou.)

The initial week of Tabloid Musical Comedy at the Bijou is meeting with the success which has far out-distanced the most sanguine expectations of the maangement. "A Trip to Joyville" is just the sort of entertainment that caters to amusement seekers and amusement lovers. The comedy is wholesome and spontaneous, the musical numbers are all catchy, the chorus composed of young and attractive girls, the scenic entertaining, up-to-date and pleasing.

Today's Beauty Recipes

By Mme. D'Mille.

"With the approach of warm weather face powder is found unsatisfactory. At best, it does not improve the complexion. A genuine beautifier is easily made by dissolving an original package of mayatone in a half pint of witch hazel. Apply in the morning and it will not rub off nor show, but will keep the skin smooth, clear and satiny.

"Don't get discouraged if your hair comes out when combing. Your hair is coming out because of parasites that prey upon it and cause it to become dull and brittle. These parasites are removed by Mother's Shampoo. This can be purchased in any neighborhood. It makes the hair rich, fine and fluffy.

"Hair removers should be painless, quick in action and safe. Delatone answers these three requirements. Make a little paste with powdered delatone and water, spread on hair or fuzz to be removed for two minutes, wipe off, wash the skin, and the hairs will be gone.

"Pimples, skin eruptions and certain kinds of eczema are speedily banished by Mother's Salve. This old-time household remedy quickly heals sores, cuts and burns without leaving a scar. It is cooling, soothing and antiseptic."

SOUTH'S HOSPITALITY IS WARMLY PRAISED BY U. P. ASSEMBLY

Stating that "the memory of our sojourn in your pleasant city and in your charming homes will remain with us as a sweet memory of the years to come," the United Presbyterian assembly adopted resolutions yesterday in appreciation of the hospitality shown them while in the city.

The resolution further states that "before coming we had heard much of southern hospitality, but now we can truly say the half has not been told us."

The Presbyterians were especially grateful for the manner in which they were allowed to enter into the home life of Atlanta, and the privilege of the fireside accorded them. They further stated that the service given at the hotels had been of the best, and the courtesies shown them by officials many indeed.

Thanks were also extended to J. K. Orr, chairman of the general committee, on arrangements; Dr. Dunbar H. Ogden, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, in which the meetings were held; Dr. Robert M. Russell, moderator of the assembly, and the press.

ALMOST GOT PAST GOING

Miss Duff Writes Interesting Statement for Publication in the Behalf of Women.

Webster Springs, W. Va.—In an interesting letter from this place, Miss Agnes Duff says: "I had been afflicted with womanly trouble for three years, and felt weak all the time.

My back and sides ached so, I almost got past going.

I had used a great many different kinds of remedies, but they failed to do me any good.

I had heard of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and decided to try it. When I had used the third bottle of Cardui, I felt like a new person entirely. I gained both in health and weight.

I praise Cardui for my recovery and good health, and I feel sure it will do the same for others, as it has me, if they will only give it a trial."

The above letter is an earnest, frank statement of Miss Duff's opinion of Cardui. She has confidence in it, because it relieved her, after many different kinds of other remedies had failed, and she believes it will help you, just as it did her, if you will give it a fair trial.

We join Miss Duff in urging you to give Cardui a trial. It cannot harm you, and, judging from the experience of thousands of others, is almost sure to do you good.

TREATY OF PEACE SIGNED IN COURT

Mayor and Citizens of Milltown Promise to Be Good in Future—Admit Their Error.

Peace reigns once more in Milltown and in the vicinity of the Banks' estate fishpond. There will be no repetition of the Realfoot lake trouble in Georgia.

State Game Commissioner Jesse E. Mercer returned to his office in the capitol yesterday from the field of war in Berrien county, and he reports that the nineteen fishermen who were under indictment for defying the law, including the mayor of Milltown, William Pafford, any many of the most prominent citizens, have signed a solemn treaty of peace in open court, and have pledged themselves to be good in future.

The case came up for trial this week before Judge Christian in the city court at Nashville. The defendants were represented by J. J. Murray, Jesse B. Lovett and John P. Knight, all well-known attorneys of south Georgia, where the affair has excited widespread interest. Solicitor J. H. Gheary represented the state.

Will Observe Law in Future.

At the opening of the trial attorneys for the defense declared that their clients, realizing that they had violated the law, were willing to plead guilty and to pledge themselves to observe the law to the letter. It was provided that the accusations against them were withdrawn. They were all law-abiding citizens, it was said, and had no intention to violate the game laws of the state, but had merely followed a custom of fishing in the Banks pond which had extended to a period beyond their memory.

Upon this representation, Game Commissioner Mercer signified his willingness to have the cases nolprossed. He had not sought to persecute anybody, he said, but simply to enforce the law of the state in which he was sworn by his oath of office. He required, however, that a contract should be drawn up and signed, not only pledging the defendants to observe the law, but also to assist the commissioner in its enforcement.

Pledge With Court an Order.

When this was done and the contract signed, it was made an order of court by Judge Christian and the cases dismissed. Mr. Mercer is well satisfied with the course matters have taken, and he does not anticipate any further trouble.

"The citizens of Berrien county are in a large majority law abiding," he said, "and we need never fear such an outbreak of lawlessness from them as occurred a few years ago in the Realfoot lake region in western Tennessee. It was natural that they should have felt at first that they had a perfect right to fish in the Banks pond, as there had been freedom of fishing it it since 1832, long before they were born. Now, however, they know that they may not fish without a written permit from some one who holds at least color of title. As the pond literally teems with fine fish, it was natural also that they should give up the privilege of free fishing in it with great reluctance.

"There will still be plenty of fishing, however. R. T. Berryhill, the representative of the Banks estate, is a very reasonable man, and will never undertake to put anything like an embargo on fishing. In fact, he allows people to fish in the pond for a fee that is absurdly small."

Start of the Trouble.

The trouble started when Commissioner Mercer, who had received many complaints of illegal fishing in the pond, sent M. F. Bolsclair, a special game warden, to Milltown to investigate the situation and to make arrests. When Mr. Bolsclair placed the mayor and other prominent citizens under arrest his life was threatened, and he was compelled to leave the neighborhood. For a time much excitement prevailed, which in great part was allayed by Mr. Mercer, who himself hurried to the scene.

PROPOSED EXHIBIT IS GIVEN A BOOST

Chamber Plans Inspection Trip With View to Installing Exhibit Here.

A distinct advance in the movement for a permanent exhibit of Atlanta-made goods to be installed here, was made yesterday when the board of directors of the chamber of commerce decided to charter a special train to take the manufacturers and merchants of this city to Chattanooga to inspect the exhibit of the Chattanooga Manufacturers' association there.

Brook Morgan was selected as chairman of the committee on the excursion which it is proposed to run to Chattanooga as soon as arrangements can be made for it. The exhibit in Chattanooga has been operated for more than a year and during that time, it is said, has accomplished great things in advertising that city.

To Lease Large Building.

The proposed exhibit was discussed at some length by the board of directors, who were enthusiastic over the advantages that would accrue to the city therefrom. The plan is to lease a large building near the heart of the city and fill it with articles made by Atlanta manufacturers, the exhibit to be open to the public the year round. It would be one of the show places of the town and would attract visitors from all parts of the country. Business men will thereby be interested in the products of Atlanta factories and great increase in trade is expected to result.

The exhibit will be under the direction of the chamber of commerce, which will lease the building and rent space to manufacturers. It is believed that it can be maintained on a reasonable basis so that exhibitors will have to pay only a moderate rent and will enjoy the advantage of having their products before the eyes of the public throughout the year.

Articles Made Here.

There are now 848 manufacturers in Atlanta turning out over one thousand articles, many of which are already finding a sale all over the country. It is doubtful whether any other city of equal size could get together such a comprehensive exhibit as could be maintained in Atlanta.

The success of the exhibit in Chattanooga, a much smaller city than Atlanta, makes it practically certain that the undertaking would prove a winner here. Mr. Morgan said that during the time the exhibit has been running in the Chattanooga city, it had been seen by many thousands of visitors and had accomplished a great deal in the way of disseminating information about the resources of the city.

Tech Celebration.

The participation of the chamber of commerce in the coming celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Technological School was discussed and the matter referred to a special committee of which M. R. Wilkinson was appointed chairman.

The organization of the junior order of the Atlanta chamber of commerce among high school boys was recommended and a special committee appointed to take the matter up and arrange the details.

Will Confer Degrees.

A meeting of unusual interest to the Odd Fellows of the city will be held tonight in Fulton Lodge Temple, corner Decatur and Moore streets.

Fulton lodge will confer the third degree upon some twenty or more candidates on this occasion, for Capital Lodge No. 60, as this is to be the degree contested for at the coming session of the Grand Lodge of Georgia, to be held in Savannah next week, and Fulton lodge's team is to be a contestant for the prize, and as this will be the last opportunity the team will have to do the work before the session of the grand lodge, it is obvious that they will do their very best.

TO BE GIVEN DINNER AT CAPITAL CITY CLUB

DR. GEORGE T. POWELL.
National authority on horticulture, who will be entertained at the Capital City club Friday.

Dr. George T. Powell, of New York, president of the Agricultural Experts' association, will arrive in Atlanta for a short visit on Friday, and will be tendered a luncheon at the Capital City club at 1:30 Friday, at which about 100 representative Atlanta business men will be the guests. The host of the occasion is Louis B. Magid, president of the Appalachian Apple Orchards.

Dr. Powell is considered one of the highest authorities on agriculture and horticulture in the United States, and he has done considerable valuable work for the United States government. He has become very much interested in northwest Georgia and its development in apple raising. It will be remembered that Dr. Powell visited Atlanta in December, 1911, when he was entertained at a luncheon and met a number of business men interested in horticultural and agricultural matters. He is well known as one of the lecturers at Cornell university, and will make a talk at the luncheon Friday.

JASPER AND BUTTS SCRAP OVER TAXES

Jackson, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—The courts may be called on to settle the question as to whether Butts or Jasper county is entitled to the larger share of the tax returns of the Central Georgia Power company. Since the dam was erected on the Ocmulgee river several years ago the company has returned its Butts county property for $750,000 and that in Jasper county for about $100,000. Now Jasper county claims that five-eighths of the company's dam is on its side of the stream and that Jasper should have more of the taxes.

Dies of Hydrophobia.

Wayeross, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—From a dog bite 2 months old, Rachael Floyd, a 14-year-old negro girl, died this morning from hydrophobia. She was in terrible agony when death relieved her.

Six other negroes, bitten by the same dog, a small poodle, are being treated, and have shown no signs of rabies.

NORMAL'S GEORGIA CLUB HOLDS COMMENCEMENT

Athens, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—This evening in the auditorium occurred the first formal commencement occasion of the famous "Georgia Club" at the State Normal school—an organization founded by Professor E. C. DECLARE CONVICTS ARE WELL TREATED Strong Denial Made of the Charge That Fulton County Convicts Are Brutally Handled.

Charges made by Evangelist George W. Crabtree that the 700 convicts of Fulton county, over whom Captain Tom Donaldson has charge, are more brutally treated than any others in the state, and that evangelists are not allowed to attempt to convert the men or to hold services among them, except on Sundays, called for a strong denial on the part of Shelby Smith, chairman of the Fulton county commissioners, and also of the committee of public works, which has direct control over Fulton's convict system.

Captain Donaldson so far has not discussed the matter, and when approached declared that he did not care to enter into such a discussion.

The arraignment of Fulton's convict system was made Thursday by Rev. George W. Crabtree, who is a prison evangelist, and who is here to attend the Presbyterian assemblies. He has done evangelistic work in many camps throughout the south.

Chairman Smith states that he favors religious services being held in the camps on Sunday, but that he does not think it practicable to allow services at any night when the evangelist chooses to hold them. He also declared that the Fulton county convicts are treated humanely, and that the system is better than any other in the south.

Restrictions Are Necessary.

"We have something like 700 prisoners to care for in this county," he said, "and there are necessarily many hard characters. There are ten murderers in one camp and, while we wish to allow them as many privileges as possible, we have to require certain restrictions. Again, it would be impractical to hold services except on Sunday.

"The men work hard every day, and when they come in they have to have their supper and baths, and they should be allowed to get to bed where they can rest as early as possible. To hold services after supper would work a hardship on many of them, and would also be impractical for the guards and attendants."

Evangelist Crabtree declares that Captain Donaldson has been decidedly against his efforts to hold religious services for the men, and has consistently refused to allow him to hold services other than on Sunday.

He declares that he has a letter from R. E. Davidson, chairman of the Georgia prison commission, in which all wardens in the state are asked to allow him as many courtesies as possible and to recognise him as an evangelist.

The evangelist also declares that in the county camps young boys are forced to work and live with hardened men, and that there is nothing done to keep them from becoming like the men with whom they associate. He also attacks the guards as hardened men who have no consideration for the men under them or for those who attempt to aid them.

SELF-DEFENSE PLEA FREES MORGAN ODOM

Marshal of Sylvania Freed of Murder Charge for Killing Spurgeon Overstreet.

Sylvania, Ga., May 22.—Morgan Odom was acquitted late today by the jury of the charge of murdering Spurgeon Overstreet, whom he shot last Thanksgiving day. Odom's plea was self-defense.

Odom was elected marshal last fall, a position coveted by Overstreet, and after the election Overstreet grew very bitter at Odom, refused to speak to him and was known to have declared that should Odom ever attempt to arrest him he would kill him. Odom testified in his own behalf today, relating the events that led up to the killing.

Turkey Trot Barred.

Savannah, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—John Roan, a prominent young man, was arrested while dancing with a girl in the pavilion at Tybee because of his persistence in doing the turkey trot, bunny hug and other prohibited dance steps. He was led away to jail, leaving his companion alone on the ballroom floor. Roan's friends finally succeeded in bailing him out. He will appear before the town council of Tybee, charged with disorderly conduct.

CRACKERS SLIP SKIDS UNDER GULLS

EDITED BY Dick Jemison

WHIFFS

In Justice to Dedt.

ELLIOTT DENT was not wholly responsible for the loss of Wednesday's game to the Turtles. The little "break" in the great national pastime, in the nature of the lone error made by the Crackers during the afternoon, came right at the critical point and had more to do with his downfall than any other happening.

Agler's Misplay.

JOE AGLER made the misplay. With two on bases in the seventh. Abstein hit to Agler. He scooped the pill up and instead of stepping on first, elected to throw to second, then threw wildly and Butler's triple cleaned the bases and packed the game on ice. elc makes 'em so seldom that when he does sing! he pulls a good one.

Two Constructions.

THE PLAYERS claim that had Joe stepped on the initial cushion, Ward could have been doubled at second easily.. Our contention is that if he had turned and stepped on first, he would not have nailed Ward at second anyway. This is only a difference in opinion, but no matter which contention is correct, the fact remains that had he stepped on the bag, before throwing, the Turtles might have been shut off without any further runs.

Would Have Won.

DENT would have won his game had this play been made. He was pitching fine ball up until this happening. He showed a pack of stuff, principal of which was a double shoot that broke both out and in. We predict that the big fellow will prove a winner, even after such a disheartening start and criticism that was heaped on him, which was not merited in its entirety. Better luck next time Elliott, old boy. Keep a stiff upper lip.

Good Sportsmanship.

THE RED AND BLACK, the official organ of the University of Georgia, has come out with a very sportsmanlike comment on the result of the Georgia-Tech fiasco. It recognizes the fact that Tech was lucky or that baseball is baseball, or that Tech had Georgia's goat, but simply the fact that Tech outplayed Georgia during the three games which she won," is their comment in part.

Tough Luck.

PUG CAVET, the big southpaw of the Mobile Gulls, and Elmer Brown, of the Montgomery Billikens, are the prize hard luck twirlers of the Southern league this season. Cavet pitched a one-hit game against Memphis the early part of the season and lost. Brown duplicated his stunt against Chattanooga this week with the same result.

WHITEY'S BROTHER TO WAYCROSS CLUB

Ed Alpermann Is Secured Berth With Charlie Wahoo's Empire State League Team.

Ed Alpermann, the Atlanta captain's younger brother, has been secured a berth with Charlie Wahoo's Waycross Empire State league club and will join that team in the next few days.

Ed arrived in Atlanta yesterday afternoon and will be here with his brother for a few days before reporting to his new teammates.

Ed is an outfielder and it is understood that the local club will keep a string on him, which they will yank at the end of the present season.

"WILD BILL" CLARK NOT WITH CORDELE

Cordele, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—The rumor that has become current through statements furnished several papers to the effect that "Wild Bill" Clark has been added to the pitching staff of the Cordele baseball club, is branded as false by Manager Reagan. It is said that the Cordele club has not had under consideration the services of Clark. Judging from all appearances, it is not Reagan's idea to hang on to any twirler, or other player for that matter, who is very old at the game, his plan seeming to be to develop young players to the stage where they can be placed with leagues higher up at the close of the Empire State league season.

Triples by Smith and Bisland And Brady's Fine Hurling Rout Gulls in First Game

By Dick Jemison.

The Crackers slipped the harpoon into the league-leading Mobile Gulls Thursday afternoon in their first local appearance of the season by a 7 to 2 count.

Umpire Dan Pfenninger, the dean of Southern league umpires, is due the thanks of every one for calling the game at the end of the sixth chapter, when it started to pour and for this ruling, we forgive all his misgivings of former days.

Dan called it on account of darkness. In which he was eminently correct. There was no chance for any more pastmining after the first spindle.

Brady in Form.

For the first time this season, the Crackers went out and pounded in a lead for "Old Reliable" King Brady, and as was predicted in these columns many times, any time they do this for him, he is likely to win a ball game.

Brady has had to pitch his arm off on practically every occasion, with a tight game to work, the locals forgetting how to hit when he was on the mound. But Thursday—sowie! They were nailing that old pill to all corners of the field and with a regularity that made Mique squirm on the Gulls' bench.

King allowed but four hits, one of which was a fluke three-bagger that counted the first run, when it should not have been more than a short single.

Billy Campbell, who has been the Crackers' jinx for ages, was on the firing line for the Gulls. The locals took a liking to his offerings in three of the six innings, counting two clusters of three and a single counter in the final session.

Nine lingles, several of which were infield taps that the locals, whom the Mobile scribes claim have no speed, beat out for hits. Swinging bunts that aided to a great extent in Campbell's downfall, he and O'Dell being unable to handle them with any degree of accuracy.

Smith and Bisland.

"Wallop" Smith and "Bizzy" Bisland were the boys with the old maul Thursday. Wallop drove in the first two counters with a clout to the scoreboard for three and Bizzy sent him home with a bingle.

Not to be outdone by his side kick, Bizzy slapped one to the same place in the fifth chapter, sending Smith home and packing the game away in the old ice chest for keeps.

Rabbit Long also had a neat day with the willow, three bingles being recorded by the locals' speed merchant.

If Thursday's game is a sample of the best ball that the Gulls can put up, just why they have been leading the league is a mystery. It looks like all the "breaks" have been going to the Gulls, judging from their Thursday form.

But we'll suspend judgment until we have seen them in action today and Friday on Saturday, before Thursday was just an off day. If it was, the Gulls certainly got a lot of bad baseball out of their systems in one afternoon.

A one-handed stab of a fierce grounder by O'Dell in the second inning was the fielding feature of the day. But Al had a horrible time at the hot corner the rest of the afternoon. Al has been playing good baseball all season, however, and though he was just due for the loud blow-up Thursday. We certainly hope that's all, for no more popular, hard-working ball player ever strode the local diamond.

How They Scored.

Milton Stock, the first man to face Brady, dropped a little Texas leaguer in right. Bailey tried to trap it, but missed. Stock winding up at third, from where he counted on O'Dell's accurate fly to center.

Long greeted Campbell with a clean smash to left for a cushion. Bailey attempted to sacrifice, but "Wishful Hope" Charley Schmidt made a beautiful play and peg to second, retiring the Gadsden Galloper.

Alpermann hit one to O'Dell and when Al pulled Paulet off the initial cushion both hands were safe. Welchonce advanced them both a cushion with a long fly to left.

Wallop seized his trusty maul and after fooling two and looking over a couple of bad ones, nailed the next one between Jacobsen and Robertson for a stop at the hot corner, two counters being registered. Bisland made it three by driving the first ball pitched to his left for a safety, sending Wallop home.

Things rocked along until the fifth, when Gene Paulet splashed one to the box. King made a bad heave to first and Gene got a life. Schmidt combed his second bingle to center, Paulet racing to third and Campbell sent him home with a sacrifice fly to left field.

Just as the Gulls duplicated their opening inning seance, the Crackers duplicated theirs.

The Final Salting.

Long opened with a smash to right for a cushion. Bailey hit to Paulet and when Stock dropped his perfect throw, both hands were safe. Whitey hit a swinging bunt at O'Dell and Leat the heave to first, filling the bases.

Welchonce hit to O'Dell, who pegged him out at first, Long counting on the play. Wallop breezed the air, but Bisland poled a long one to right center for three, sending home two more.

Dunn got a life on O'Dell's error in the sixth, but Schmidt duplicated his fine performance of the initial inning, by pegging Dunn out at the keystone. Long dropped a beautiful bunt, which he outsprinted to first. Bailey sacrificed and when Campbell threw badly to first, the bases were full. On Alpermann's infield out another tally came home.

After Welchonce had popped to Schmidt, it began to pour and Pfenninger sensibly called the pastime off for the afternoon.

Price vs. Hogg.

Gilbert Price, for the Crackers, with Bradley Hogg, the former Mercer star, for the Gulls, will probably be the Ladies' Day hurling selections this afternoon, with Schmidt and Graham doing the mask duty.

GIANTS AND REDS TRADE PLAYERS

New York, May 22.—The New York and Cincinnati clubs of the National league today completed a deal whereby the Giants gave Pitcher Leon Ames, Outfielder Josh Devore and Infielder Groh to the Reds in exchange for Pitcher Art Fromme.

The 1912 records show Fromme's pitching averages .457 for forty-three games, of which twenty-three were completed games. He batted .087. Ames starting in thirty-three games, nine of which were completed contests and his average was .688. He batted .244. Devore batted .275 and fielded .918. Groh, who was a substitute infielder, batted .271 for twenty-seven games.

"Ames and Devore have been of little use to the club during the past three years," said Manager John J. McGraw this afternoon in discussing the deal, "and I believe that they will play far better ball with the Reds. Groh is a good, fast fielder and a consistent hitter, but I could not find a regular berth for him."

Fromme will report to the Giants at the Polo grounds tomorrow morning and the tro of late Giants leave for Philadelphia tonight to join the Cincinnati club.

WORKINGMAN GOLFER TO PLAY IN U. S. TOURNEY

New York, May 22.—Local golfing circles are interested in a report from London to the effect that Abe Mitchell, the English "workingman" golfer, may enter the United States amateur and open championship this summer. Mitchell, who was the runner up in the English amateur golf championship at Holyoke last year against John Ball, is chauffeur to Sir Abe Bailey, the South African mining maznate.

He has played golf all his life, taking his first lessons in Johannesburg. West, where other members of his family have distinguished themselves at the game. He played for years for the Canteloupe, a workingman's club, but was unknown until last year, when he got into the final with Ball. Considerable feeling was aroused over this match, which was won by Ball by one up for 38 holes.

VINCENT ASTOR OWNS FASTEST MOTOR BOAT

New York, May 22.—Vincent Astor is the owner of what is said to be the fastest 55-foot motor boat in American waters.

In its initial tryout on the Hudson yesterday with Mr. Astor at the wheel, the craft developed a speed of better than 25 miles an hour and is capable of 35 when pushed to the limit. The boat named Coreyria, which was built by a New Jersey firm, has a new type of engine which has never before been installed in any kind of vessel.

The boat cost about $10,000, it was said, and required an outlay of $10 an hour to run it.

In a race with a hydroplane yesterday, rated at 35 miles an hour, the Coreyria won three times, first on even terms and later allowing the hydroplane a flying start.

MANAGERS OF HEAVIES ARE HURLING DEFIS

San Francisco, May 22.—With the hope of getting a return bout with Dunboar" Smith, Tom Jones, Jesse Willard's manager, has offered to match another fight, winner take all. In answer to this, Smith's manager said:

"If you will guarantee that our end will be $10,000, I will take the match and be ready to fight any time you say."

What's the Matter, Lucille?

HAS STRENGTHENED STAFF

The acquisition of the former Lookout was a wise move. "Large William" should be one of the team's winning hurlers, if he maintains his present clip.

GEORGIA-ALABAMA.

LaGrange 4, Opelika 3.

LaGrange, Ga., May 22.—(Spe-cial.) The hottest game of the season on the home grounds took place today between LaGrange and Opelika, ending in score of 4 to 3 in favor of LaGrange, the game having been called in the eighth inning on account of rain. LaGrange put in their new pitcher, Schuessler, and he struck out 13 men in 8-innings and was at all times complete master of the game. Several new players have been added to the LaGrange team. The umpiring of the game was very poor and it took police interference to get the people off the diamond in the eighth inning when Opelika kicked on the decision of Umpire Stephens in calling a man safe at home plate.

BALL PLAYERS MUST STAND FOR PHOTOS

New York, May 22.—Baseball players are public attractions and photographers may take photographs of them in action without their consent, according to a ruling of Magistrate Butts in police court this afternoon.

The case decided was brought by the national baseball commission and the New York Baseball club against a moving pictures concern, which had taken photographs of games without a permit from the management.

The plaintiffs contended that the girls rights had not been violated. The pictures in question were taken during the world's series.

M'NEAL CLIPS OFF MILE A MINUTE ON MOTORDROME

Hundreds were out to the Motordrome Thursday afternoon to watch the professional riders try out the track. The track proper and the paddock and garages for the riders have been completed. The track surface is 18 feet wide, which will allow five riders to race abreast without any danger.

Only a few of the riders were out during the afternoon, but speed equaling to a mile a minute was made right along by McNeal, the Scotch champion, on his Jaspe motorcycles.

BANS REMOVED FROM STOVALL!

St. Louis Manager Must Pay $100 Fine and Apologize to Umpire Ferguson—Stovall Complies.

St. Louis, May 22.—George Stovall, suspended manager of the St. Louis Americans, was reinstated by President Johnson, of the American league, today on condition that Stovall write a letter of apology to Umpire Charles Ferguson, on whom he spat while playing in a game here May 3.

In addition to apologising to Umpire Ferguson, Stovall must pay a $100 fine.

If Stovall complies with the conditions, he will be allowed to play in the game against Detroit next Saturday. The apology to Umpire Ferguson must be mailed to Johnson's office in Chicago and approved by Johnson before it is forwarded to Ferguson.

Stovall said he would comply with conditions of his reinstatement.

Chicago, May 22.—Stovall's fine is $100, according to an announcement today from the office of President Johnson, of the American League.

EMPIRE STATE LEAGUE

Cordele 7, Thomasville 6.

Thomasville, Ga., May 22.—(Special.) Cordele added to its winning streak by defeating Thomasville in a hard-hitting contest this afternoon, 7 to 6. Thirteen safeties on both teams and some slow fielding caused the runs. Cordele getting six runs and as many hits in one inning. Hall pitched the better game, striking out twelve and keeping Thomasville from scoring by striking out hitters with three men on bases in two innings. Kates hit for a homer and Crow got four safeties in as many times at bat. Jordan fanned four times in succession, twice with men on bases.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Cordele . . . . .000 100 600—7 12 1
Thomasville . . .000 003 030—6 13 3

Valdosta 6, Waycross 1.

Waycross, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Bunched hits in the first inning, three of the four being for extra bases, coupled to three errors and bases on balls, gave Valdosta a lead of five runs, and the best Waycross could do was to shove one across. The score was 6 to 1. Waycross woke up after the first, but could do nothing with Wingea, who gave up only two hits, one a scratch. Hurley led the batting, getting three hits out of five times up. Manager Jordan, who was this morning notified of an indefinite suspension, was back in the game, having been fined and allowed to return into active play.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Valdosta . . . . .500 001 000—6 10 1
Waycross . . . . .000 100 000—1 2 7

Batteries—Wingea and Pierce; Vanderlip and Boone. Time, 2:00. Umpire McLaughlin.

Americus 7, Brunswick 4.

Brunswick, Ga., May 22.—(Special.) Chancey's home run over the right field fence, with two on, won the game for Americus for the afternoon by a score of 7 to 4. Slocum, for the locals, was wild and was relieved by Vickery in the seventh, after he had passed two men, allowing a home run and a double. The elocals hit the ball for a total of 15 singles and doubles, but they were left scattered.

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Americus. . . . .000 210 400—7 9 2
Brunswick. . . .101 100 100—4 15 3

ODDS ARE REDUCED ON POLO MATCHES

Form of English Team Is Marveled At by Polo Sharps.

New York, May 22.—Odds on the American polo team for the coming matches against the English four at Meadowbrook are rapidly shortening. Whereas it was possible to secure as high as 3 to 1 against the challengers a month ago, the prevailing quotations at the present time are 8 to 5, and shrewd followers of the game are predicting that even money wagering will be in order when the rival teams mount their ponies for the first match of the series next month.

The marked change is due to the impression made by the English players and their ponies since their arrival at the Piping Rock club for practice. The Long Island Country club colonies contain a large number of expert polo critics, and they have been impressed with the ability of the invading players.

In practice, the English team, consisting of Captain Cheape, Edwards, Ritson and Lockett, and F. M. Freake, as reserve, has shown some wonderful team play and riding. The direction and length of the shots made by the English four and the clever manner in which they ride in offensive and defensive formation has opened the eyes of the averag American polo follower. There is nothing but praise for the English ponies from horsemen who are familiar with the points that go to make up the ideal polo pony.

Large sums already have been wagered, both in this country and abroad, on the outcome of the matches, but there is no apparent tendency to call a halt by the backers of the contests, though the odds are steadily shortening. According to some calculations, close to a million dollars will be at stake when the players scrimmage for the ball in the opening game.

SEWANEE-VANDERBILT AT NASHVILLE TODAY

Sewanee, Tenn., May 22.—(Special.)—The Sawanee Tigers play their last series of baseball Friday and Saturday with Vanderbilt at Nashville, and these two games bid fair to be of great interest, as the rivalry between these two teams is always keen. For the last few weeks the Tigers have been playing good ball, Captain Gordon shaking up the line-up after they returned from the long southern trip. McGoodwin, on first, is now playing fine ball on the initial sack, which was the weak spot of the team.

Captain Gordon will pitch the first game against the Commodores, and he ought to land the first victory, as he has been pitching winning ball all season. The second contest Eggleston will be in the box, and if he shows the class he did last week against S. P. U. he will have no difficulty in downing the Commodores.

Advertising drives the wheels of trade

The man who advertises every day has the advantage of the man who enters the papers only at infrequent intervals.

Even though the former's ads be small, they make repeated impressions changing temporary interest into permanent desire for his goods. He gets the good will of the people and his ads help hold it.

The latter does business for that day when the ad appears. He seldom obtains the good will of his patron, thus making him a permanent customer, because his representatives—the ads—do not appear continually to argue in his favor.

The Constitution has watched both methods with interest. Evidence is all in favor of the former.

CHAMP TRAVERS WINS TWO MATCHES

Elimination of Herreshoff and Travis in the First Round Metropolitan Golf Was a Surprise.

New York, May 22.—Successful playing on the part of the national champion, Jerome D. Travers, the elimination of Walter J. Travis from the third division of players and defeat of Fred Herreshoff, who won the Oakland tournament a week ago, were features in today's rounds in the tournament for the metropolitan amateur golf championship of Fox Hills, Staten Island.

Travers won his match this morning round of 18 holes from H. H. Kerr, of South Shore, Long Island, but did not exhibit his usual deftness at any time of the game, while in the afternon, most of the play being during a severe rainstorm, he was almost at the top of his game and defeated D. J. Graham, of Greenwich, Conn., by five up and four to play.

Terreshoff's defeat was accomplished by M. Michael, of Youngtakah, in the first round for the championship ellgibies Travis succumbed during the second round for the third division. Tament a week ago, due to himself justice owing to his having wrenched his right knee two days ago, and was che down to J. D. Lord, of Brooklyn, of the home green. Oswald Kirby, the New Jersey state champion, is expected to win his match in the third round tomorrow morning, and probably will meet Travers in the semi-finals later in the day.

Travers won his match from H. K. Kerr, of South Shore, 7 up and 2 to play. The surprise of the morning round was the defeat of Fred Herreshoff, of Garden City, by M M. Michael, of Yountakah, who won by 3 up. Oswald Kirby, of New Jersey, state champion, defeated the inter-scholastic champion, Max R. Marston, 3 up and 2 to play.

Other matches in first round resulted as follows:

H. F. Whitney, Nassau, beat W. S. Leeds, Fox Hills, 4 up and 3 to play. G. T. Brokaw, Garden City, beat F. H. Thomas Morris county, 4 up and 3 to play; A. F. Kammer, Fox Hills, beat E. E. Sturges, Wykegyl, 4 up and 3 to play; J. R. Hyde, South Shore, defeated Max Behr, Baltusrol, 3 up and 2 to play; H. J. Topping, Greenwich, defeated E. M. Barnes, Englewood, 5 up and 3 to play.

E. M. Wild, Cranford, beat S. D. Bowers, Brooklawn, 3 up and 2 to play; W. W. Taylor, Ardsley, beat M. P. Lewis, Flushing, 6 up and 5 to play; McKim Hollins, Westbrook, beat J. M. Ward, Garden City, 4 up and 2 to play; Chisholm Beach, Fox Hills, beat B. H. Hidder, Oakland, 2 up and 1 to play; S. J. Graham, Greenwich, beat T. V. Bermingham, Wykagyl, 6 up and 5 to play; B. T. Allen, Fox Hills, beat Roy D. Webb, Engiewood, 2 up and 1 to play; L. P. Gayer, Staten, beat R. H. Slater, Fox Hills, 3 up and 2 to play; and Gardiner W. White, Oakland, beat H. V. Gaines, Wykagyl, 2 up.

The result of the second match play round follows:

Wild beat Taylor, 6 up and 4 to play; Whitney beat Hollins by 1 up; Kammer beat Brokaw, 4 up and 3 to play; Hyde beat Topping, 3 up and 2 to play; Beach beat Michael, 2 up and 1 to play; Travers beat Graham, 5 up and 4 to play; Kirby beat Allen, 2 up and 1 to play, and Gwyer beat White, 3 up and 2 to play.

FIRST CHRISTIAN TO GLADDEN MANY FOLKS ON "FLOWER SUNDAY"

Next Sunday morning the First Christian church will hold its annual flower Sunday services. Each person attending that church is asked to bring an offering of flowers. After the flower sermon and services, at which the flowers will be banked in beautiful groups around the pulpit, they will be made up into bouquets and carried to Grady hospital, Home for Incurables, Old Ladies' home, Battle Hill sanitarium and all of Atlanta's hospitals, and to other public institutions, including the tower, federal prison, Soldiers' home and all the orphanages.

Everybody in Atlanta who has flowers is most cordially invited to send them to the church early on Sunday morning, and to participate in the plan to send a little happiness into the lives of the sick, the aged and those in prison.

DALTON SCOUTS READY FOR ATLANTA VISITORS

Dalton, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—The Dalton troop of boy scouts is planning for the entertainment of Atlanta and Marietta scouts, who will camp in this city on July 11. The Atlanta troop, under Scout Master Eugene G. Everitt, and the Marietta troop, under Scout Master Fred Morris, will come by train. Camp will be pitched on Fort Dependable, the Dalton troop camping with the visitors.

On June 12 the three troops will start on a hike through the country to Chattanooga, by way of Chickamauga park. The scouts will be guests of officers at Fort Oglethorpe and will spend several days in Chattanooga, returning to Atlanta about July 21.

JUDGE COMMENDS CORDELE FOR MORALITY

Cordele, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Judge W. F. George during the present session of the Crisp county superior court has taken occasion to say that Cordele as compared with other towns of near its size, is the most moral and law-abiding in his circuit. His remarks had reference to the strict enforcement of the law against women of questionable character and the unrelenting effort that has and is being made to keep down the illegal traffic in liquor.

Tennis Champ Busy.

New York, May 22.—Maurice E. McLoughlin, the national tennis champion, who will arrive here today from California, will begin practice tomorrow for the Davis cup matches, when he will meet Haggart, the English professional, who is to act as coach of the American team, and Gustav F. Touchard at Singles on the West Side courts. On Saturday afternoon McLoughlin is to be paired in a double's match, in which H. H. Hackett and R. D. Little also will participate.

TWO-STATE TRAVELERS MEETING IN COLUMBUS

Grand Council Georgia-Florida Division, U. C. T., Convenes With 500 Delegates.

Columbus, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—With some 500 delegates in attendance from practically all sections of Georgia and Florida, the grand council of the Georgia-Florida division, United Commercial Travelers, met in annual convention here this morning for a two-days' session.

Mayor L. H. Chappell, representing the city, and J. R. Cargill, the local council, welcomed the visitors to the city in appropriate addresses when the session was formally called to order in the Masonic temple at 10:30 o'clock this morning, and responses were made by Grand Councilor R. E. Cole and Supreme Councilor L. E. Valloft.

The meeting was called to order by Senior Councilor W. C. Thornton, who presided during the preliminary exercises, and a splendid orchestra dispensed sweet music at intervals during the day. Dr. L. R. hristie pronounced the opening invocation and Hon. C. B. Chester the benediction at the noon hour when the grand council adjourned for luncheon.

When the big convention was reconvened at 1:30 in the afternoon, it was seen that many additional visitors had arrived, swelling the attendance considerably. With Grand Councilor Cole presiding, a business session, lasting for some hours, was held, when much routine matter was disposed of by the convention. This session adjourned in time for the visitors to attend a ball game between the teams of Columbus and Charleston at 4 o'clock, and at 7:30 o'clock sent the visitors on a steamboat excursion down the Chattahoochee river, this being one of the most interesting social features of the gathering.

R. H. Rowe, of Atlanta, Firing Line editor of the Atlanta Journal, made a "booster" talk to the meeting, in which he had not a few interesting and amusing things to say.

F. E. Limbaugh, of Atlanta, a well-known barber of that city, made a talk in which he earnestly urged the passage of a law by the legislature, requiring barber shops to keep in first-class condition. He urged that they be kept sanitary and clean at all times, the same as hotels are kept under the law.

H. D. Shackelford, of Atlanta, a traveling man, also advocated a law, providing the inspection of hotels to see that the law in respect to sanitation and cleanliness be observed.

One of the big features of tomorrow's program is a parade late in the afternoon by the "Bagmen of Bagdad," which promises to be quite an amusing and interesting event. The convention will close tomorrow night with a big dance at the Racine hotel.

BROTHER PREVENTS ELOPEMENT PLANNED BY WESLEYAN GIRL

Macon, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—A message to the effect that his sister, Miss Zadie Langdale, 18 years of age, and a freshman at Wesleyan college, was preparing to elope with a young man from Council, Ga., brought H. Langdale, a Valdosta lawyer and president of the Valdosta Baseball club, to Macon this morning.

Mr. Langdale confronted his sister with the report and, despite her tearful denial, accompanied by one of the members of the college faculty, he escorted the young lady to the depot and took her home to Valdosta.

"If my sister is going to get married, I want her to do it at home, where we can all witness the ceremony," said Mr. Langdale to a reporter.

Mrs. Burke, the matron of the college, is said to have sent word to Valdosta last night that the marriage was to occur some time this afternoon, and it was that information which brought Mr. Langdale to Macon.

Bartlett at Huff Trial.

Macon, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Congressman C. L. Bartlett, of Macon, is home for a few days while the senate is considering the tariff bill, and was one of the interested spectators in the United States courtroom this morning during the Huff trial.

During the next few days Colonel Hu will confer with Mr. Bartlett relative to the impeachment proceedings which the former anticipates bringing against Judge Emory Speer, of the United States district court, and it is expected that the sixth district congressman will be asked to formally lay the charges before the house.

Bridges Smith to Run.

Macon, Ga., May 22.—(Special.—There is now little doubt but that Bridges Smith, Macon's former mayor and present city clerk, will make the race for mayor this year. Numerous petitions have been put in circulation by his friends and they are being liberally signed. So far Mr. Smith has made no definite announcement, though it is known he prefers his present position to that of the head of the municipal government, but feils that if the voters of Macon really want him for their mayor again that it is his duty to run.

PRISONER MAKES BREAK FROM MUSCOGEE COURT

Columbus, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—While waiting in adjoining rooms in the courthouse, under guard of bailiff, for his bond to be signed, Walter Davis, about 16 years old, charged with the larceny of a bicycle, jumped from the second story to the ground this morning and made a break for liberty. He was chased by a bailiff, who soon located him under a bed in a house about a block away.

He was placed in jail.

CRUELTY ALLEGED BY EVERETT'S WIFE

Suit for $5,000 Temporary Alimony, Alleging Cruel Treatment, Filed Against Alderman.

Mrs. Clara E. Everett, wife of Alderman James B. Everett, filed suit for $5,000 temporary alimony yesterday in the superior court, charging that cruel and inhuman treatment on the part of her husband forced her to leave him on July 1, 1912.

Specific instances of the alleged cruel treatment are not given in the petition, and the only instance of an act on the part of the alderman which his wife cites as objectionable is the claim that he persuaded her to mortgage her equity in a house and lot at 659 North Boulevard and used the money for his own purposes. She declares that the mortgage she placed on the property amounts to $3,100, and that it is more than half the value of the place, which, she says, was given to her by her mother shortly after her marriage on November 24, 1904.

In her petition, filed by Attorneys Maddox & Sims, Mrs. Everett states that her husband is employed by the Theatrical club at a monthly salary of $150, and that "he also holds a position as alderman, from which he derives a large sum each year." She declares also that he is a stockholder in the Theatrical club, and draws annual dividends from his stock, in addition to receiving his salary.

Mrs. Everett asserts that she has no income upon which to live, as the returns from the North Boulevard property are hardly more than enough to pay taxes and upkeep, and that since the separation she has had to live with friends and relatives.

She asks the sum of $5,000 as temporary alimony, and she also requests the court to order her husband to pay her temporary alimony, attorneys' fees and costs of court, pending the final litigation. Judge John T. Pendleton set May 31 as the date for hearing the petition for temporary alimony and fees.

W. J. REEVES IS FREED OF DISTILLING CHARGE

Zebulon, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—W. J. Reeves, who was taken to Macon by Deputy Marshall Riley some days ago on account of an illicit distillery found on his land, near this place, had a preliminary trial before Commissioner W. E. Martin yesterday and was discharged, as there was no evidence connecting Mr. Reeves with the still. This is what Mr. Reeves' friends expected, as they were satisfied that he knew nothing of the distillery. Mr. Reeves is one of the best citizens of this county, and his friends regret very much that he should be humiliated by an arrest when there was no evidence to authorize it.

Wickersham Was Wrong.

Washington, May 22.—Delegate Wickersham's statement before the senate territories committee today, that Senator Chamberlain had introduced, and that the senate had passed, a bill which would have turned Cordova harbor, Alaska, over to "the Guggenheims," had it not been killed in the house by Mr. Wickersham himself, was refuted in the senate today by Senators Chamberlain and Smoot. Mr. Chamberlain said the delegate had since informed him that the bill was introduced by Senator Clark, of Wyoming, "by request," and Senator Smoot declared the senate had never passed it.

65 COUNTIES REPORT CONDITIONS IMPROVED

General Rain in East and Showers in West Have Bettered Crops in Georgia.

Athens, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Reports from about 65 counties coming to the Georgia State College of Agriculture from the farm demonstration agents, are the most favorable that have been received since early April. One general rain of several hours' duration covered the eastern section of the state, while local showers are reported from various portions of the western section. A number of counties are, however, still exceedingly dry from the long drouth.

Where the rains have been felt corn and cotton have appeared above the surface in better stands than some had anticipated, yet cotton has not a full stand by any means, while corn, generally speaking, may be said to have a fair stand.

Spring sown oats have turned out poorly but fall sown oats are very generally good. November sown oats are the best of all, suffering comparatively little from drouth.

Reports indicate that the fields are well cultivated. A gratifying number of farmers will follow oats this year with cow peas or other legumes, and the general tendency toward diversifying crops is increasing. Where farmers have failed to get cotton stands many of them have planted to corn and have thus evaded the adversity which would have followed reliance upon cotton alone.

AGNES SCOTT WILL GRADUATE BIG CLASS

Largest Class in History of the Institution Will Receive Diplomas Wednesday.

When sixteen young ladies are handed their diplomas by the president of Agnes Scott next Wednesday they will constitute the largest class yet graduated by the institution. Special interest attaches to this inasmuch as the school was last fall placed into class A of the female colleges of the country. Randolph-Macon at Roanoke, Va., is the only other southern college in class A

The names of the young ladies who will graduate next week are as follows:

Misses Laura Mel Towers, of Birmingham, Ala., class president; Allie Garnier Candler, of Atlanta, vice president; Helen Maude Smith, of Wauchula, Fla., secretary and treasurer; Frances Dukes, of Quitman, Ga., class poet; Emma Pope Moss, of Marietta, class historian; Grace Lydia Anderson, Decatur; Alivia Ruth Bogacki, Montgomery, Ala.; Kate Hutcheson Clark, Montgomery, Ala.; Mary Lois Enzor, of Troy, Ala.; Elizabeth Frances Joiner, of Hawkinsville, Ga.; Janie Wood Macgaughey, of Atlanta; Mary Louise Maness, of Decatur; Almira Eleanor Pinkston, of Greenville, Ga.; Margaret Roberts, of Valdosta, Ga., Lavallette Kennedy Sloan, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Florence Smith, of Atlanta.

Graduation week will be replete with entertainments and exercises that will dwell long in the memories of the young ladies. Perhaps the most noteworthy of these will be the "Confession luncheon," to be tendered her classmates by Miss Allie Candler, vice president of the seniors, at her home in Druid Hills. On that occasion all the girls who are engaged will be required to "fess" up. After the luncheon the class will attend an art exhibit by members of the art class.

Tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock a song recital will be given in the college auditorium by the music pupils. The Rev. Charles H. Erdman, professor of homiletics at Princeton seminary, will preach the baccalaureate sermon Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and at 8:30 Monday night the Glee Club will give its last performance of the year.

At the annual celebration of the Propylean and Mnemosynean Literary societies, which comes at 8:30 Tuesday night, the question, "Resolved, That the Panama Canal Shall Be Open Without Toll Charges," will be debated.

Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock the graduating exercises will be held, and diplomas will be presented to the 16 members of the senior class. Most of the Agnes Scott girls will leave for their various homes Wednesday night, though several are planning to visit friends in Atlanta for a few days.

Liner Shattered by Mine.

Smyrna, May 22.—The French liner Senegal lies beached on the harbor front here today, half of one side torn out by the accidental explosion of a mine as she was leaving port late yesterday. The explosion was a terrific one, instantly killing two persons and fatally injuring six others. The liner was close to shore and in shallow water, and maintained enough headway after the explosion to enable the captain to run her aground. All the injured members of the crew and the passengers were landed safely.

Similar Fate to Walker's Narrowly Escaped by Roy

The same mistake that cost the life of Sanders Walker, Jr., the young Macon real estate man, who died from taking bichloride of mercury, occurred recently to Dr. Dunbar Roy, a prominent Atlanta physician, at his residence, 921 Peachtree street, but due to his knowledge of drugs cost him no ill effects.

The Macon man took seven and a quarter grains of the powerful poison, under the impression that he was taking a dose of aspirin, and Dr. Roy took one grain of bichloride of mercury, thinking he was taking a one-grain dose of calomel.

According to Dr. Roy's own statement the amount of the poison that he took would have been sufficient to have caused practically the same effect as the larger dose did to Walker, but he was saved by realizing that he had made a mistake, and by applying proper emetics immediately.

Walker took the drug and was not aware of its nature until he began to experience the pain that came with its action upon the stomach. It was too late then for physicians to save his life, although he lingered until an early hour Thursday morning, the drug had so effected his kidneys as to render them inactive and to cause his death from suremic poisoning.

"It was about eight months ago that I took the poison," said Dr. Roy in discussing the affair Thursday night. "I had gone to bed and as I was very sleepy had dropped off in a doze, when I recalled that I had intended to take a dose of calomel before retiring.

Picked Up Wrong Bottle.

"I arose and went to my medicine chest and reached for the bottle of calomel tablets. Next to this was another one, containing bichloride of mercury, which I use for antiseptic purposes.

"I swallowed the two half-grain tablets, and as they began to dissolve I realized that I had not taken calomel. The peculiar taste told me that something was wrong, and I examined the bottle. On the label I read, 'bichloride of mercury.'

"As a matter of fact calomel is a chloride of mercury, but the two elements are combined in different proportions, and calomel is not poisonous in ordinary cases.

Took Eggs and Hot Water.

"I immediately called up Dr. L. P. Stephens, a next-door neighbor, and requested him to come over. He urged I take an emetic before his arrival, and I ate five raw eggs and swallowed two pints of hot water.

"By the time Dr. Stephens had arrived I had rid my stomach of the poison, and, although terribly frightened, was apparently in no danger. Dr. Stephens stayed with me for some time, and I spent the remainder of the night wondering what would be the effect and if I had got all of the poison out of my system before any of it could be absorbed through the walls of the stomach.

"The next day, however, I experienced no ill effects, and was at my office and attending to my duties as usual.

"The case of Walker has appealed to me strongly on account of the fact that I came so near the same end," continued the physician, "and I have followed closely the progress of the poison in his case.

"The effects of bichloride of mercury are not rapid," he added, "and physicians expect them to be manifested in the same way as in that case. While there is a certain corrosive effect on the stomach, depending on the amount taken, the worst part of the injury comes as the drug is absorbed into the system, and it was while the gradual absorption went on that Mr. Walker lived."

Old and Young Make Merry in Waters of Piedmont Park Lake

Nearly 1,000 people took advantage of the opening of the bathing season at Piedmont park lake Thursday, and once more the old were made young, and the young happy.

Although it was publicly known scant twelve hours ahead of time, when the locker rooms at the bathing pavilion of Piedmont park were thrown open at the crack o' day on Thursday a good sized crowd was waiting.

Most of the bathers were old timers and they saw a great many points in the facilities at the park. Several hundred lockers have been added for the men and almost as many for the women. In addition there are five key men for the men's lockers and a matron for the ladies' side of the pavilion instead of the one key man of last year.

This is a great boon to the bathers, for the majority of the bathers at Piedmont park are people who work all day and have only short time for recreation. But instead of the long waits of last season for the key man and locker capacity, this year bathers can be served at once.

The key man and the matron, as well as the life savers, are as accommodating a corps of people as has ever been assembled at the park. Messrs. South, Whitley and Kinard are in charge of the locker rooms, and Mrs. White is on hand to look after the fair contingent. They are all as jolly as can be and love the young people, who form the majority of the patronage at Piedmont park lake. Already they are beginning to make a host of friends by courteous and prompt attention.

McDermott Back on Job.

Life Saver McDermott, who was popular and efficient in his services on the lake last summer, is on the job again this year, and the bathers are glad. Many of the bathers, though regretting the loss of Life Saver Norway, who is no longer in the service, J. E. Glover, of Milwaukee, Wis., takes his place. Incidentally, Mr. Glover is a very capable man to look after the safety of the bathers. He already has many friends in Atlanta, as he attended school at Tech and has lived and worked in the city.

Volunteer Life Saver Schlomberg, who was a conspicuous figure at the lake last season, is stationed this year at Lakewood, where he has assembled an efficient corps of the volunteer service.

The policemen at the lake are Officers Freeman and Arrowood.

So much for where to go and whom to see when you go bathing at Piedmont park.

An opening time Thursday morning there were half a hundred young people waiting at the pavilion and as soon as the doors were thrown open they slipped quickly into bathing suits and were off for Atlanta's "inland beach."

Just as the sun peeked over the edge of the world a girl who, down about Tybee, would have been called a mermaid, poised her pretty white hands over her head and leaped from the diving platform, head first, into the water. A dozen other "lake fans" followed. Thus was the lake formally opened to the public.

Lake Full All Day.

All day long the threatening weather did not keep the swimmers away from the park. Little Jennie Perkerson, the girl wonder, was there bright and early, but did not begin beating a dip until the middle of the afternoon. Mrs. Turner and the Misses Smith, who were well-known swimmers last season, were there, too.

The water was fine—good and warm and clear—and the improvements about the lake offered almost irresistible inducements to swimmers.

The old runway from the bank to the fence inclosing the safety pool has been done away with, and in its place is a platform extending all the way across the west side of the lake, with entrances from both the northern and southern ends of it.

At intervals along the runway are diving platforms and balustraded ladders for the swimmers. The "choots" have been done away with in the place in the safety pool and proved as popular a feature as ever.

Instead of the old floating platform in the middle of the lake, however, Mr. Carey has provided two stationary diving stands at convenient distances from both the northern and the sides of the lake. These are both a great convenience and a great safeguard, since they are within easy swimming distance from almost any part of the lake.

The opening Thursday was happily without accident, and everybody was pleased with the improvements made by the park board. Piedmont lake bids fair to be more popular this year than ever.

With Wedding Set For June Young Couple Surprise Friends

"Mama, I'm going to the show this afternoon," called out pretty Madeline Arnold, of 25 West Third street, as she left the house at noon yesterday. Instead, she kept an engagement with H. S. Hossbein, manager of the Elite theater, and with him went to a minister's residence, where they were married.

Mrs. Arnold thought nothing strange of it when her daughter returned home about dusk, accompanied by Mr. Hossbein. The young couple have been sweethearts for nearly a year, and were frequently together. When the girl, however, started out to explain that instead of going to the theater, she had changed her mind and gone to a minister's, her mother was for a moment too shocked to say anything.

Soon Mr. and Mrs. Hossbein appeased the mother and received her blessings. A few friends of the couple knew that the wedding was to come off in June, but they did not know that they would be thus summarily deprived of the long-cherished privilege of throwing rice at the bride.

Rev. C. B. Wilmer, of St. Luke's Episcopal church, performed the ceremony at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon, and only two friends of the groom were present.

MONROE AUTO VICTIMS ARE NOW RECOVERING

Monroe, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Four Monroe boys, who were badly injured last Sunday when their auto in which they were returning from Atlanta crashed through Tanner's bridge, are now recovering. Coley Knight is able to be out on the streets and Karl Hensler, Frank Hensler and Will Herndon are all able to be up and about their homes.

While returning from witnessing the Georgia-Tech game in Atlanta the four young men started across the bridge on the road between this place and Social Circle. They did not realize in the darkness that the structure had collapsed in the middle and the machine crashed with its four occupants into the water.

Karl Hensler and Will Herndon were thrown over the steering wheel and internally injured. Besides their internal injuries these boys were cut about their eyes and their legs.

Karl Hensler was unconscious for some 15 minutes. He was badly cut over the left eye. Will Herndon was bruised over the right eye, and it required seven stitches to close the wound. He was bruised about the left arm and legs. Coley Knight was bruised about the mouth and nose and both legs, the right side of his body, shoulder and arms were bruised. He is hobbling about with a stick while the other boys were forced to remain in bed. Mr. Knight was put about the in bed. Mr. Knight was cut on the lip an. Frank Hensler is believed to be injured about the kidneys, having sustained a 6 or 8-inch bruise. He is cut over the left eye and it required some nine stitches to close the wound. He is unable to walk owing to the injury to his lower limbs.

TAFT GOT HIS TRAINING AT EXPENSE OF PEOPLE

Cambridge, Mass., May 22.—Former President Taft told members of the graduating class of Harvard Law school, at their banquet tonight, that he had received much of his legal training "at the expense of the people."

Another speaker had said:

"The truth is that we have too many young judges who get their experience on the bench."

Professor Taft said: "I agree with him. I was one of those young judges. I went on the bench at 29, and that was the first real legal training that I got. I regret to say that I learned much of the law at the expense of the people."

STONE'S ELECTION MAY BE PROBED

Resolution Demanding Investigation May Be Introduced in Northern Presbyterian Assembly.

Before the assembly of the Northern Presbyterian church, in session today, a resolution or perhaps several resolutions similar in nature, will be introduced demanding an investigation of the reports that deception was used by certain commissioners in the nomination and election of John Timothy Stone as moderator of the assembly. The resolutions are expected to cause a stir in the assembly surpassing any action of the week's meetings.

The advocates of Dr. Stone announced in open assembly last week that they would nominate a man who had been prominently considered, and whose candidacy was entirely spontaneous. The impression was given that no concerted movement for the election of Dr. Stone had been made, that the whole matter was a sudden outpouring of enthusiasm. Dr. Stone was then nominated and elected.

Now it is reported by a number of commissioners that they received letters from certain advocates of Dr. Stone, written in advance of the conference, and received before the first meeting, in which the candidacy of a "dark horse" was stressed and voted for him asked. Dr. Stone's name was not mentioned, but the inference was plain.

The assembly understands thoroughly that so far as Dr. Stone himself is concerned, his candidacy was a surprise and unsought. But those introducing the resolutions maintain that the methods used in the nomination savored of politics and deception, and will demand a thorough investigation.

Methias Resigns.

As an aftermath of the $2,500,000 Kennedy fund fight in the Northern assembly, in which $600,000 was voted at the immediate disposal of those churches needing new buildings, Duncan J. McMillan, who strenuously opposed the move, resigned as secretary of the board of church erection, being quoted as saying that the matter had gone over his head.

Moderator Stone's church, in Chicago, was chosen as the meeting place of the next Northern assembly.

Much feeling has been stirred up among the friends of the home mission board by the story which went to a New York paper regarding the action of the Northern assembly concerning the home board policy. The New York dispatch read that the enemies of the board of missions have won every point. The way reverse is said to be true. There was a special protest against that feature of the story which reported that several departments had been discontinued by the home board of missions, and the funds transferred to increase budget for the secretaries' salaries. The identity of the correspondent was ascertained and a contradiction of the facts alleged was sent to the New York paper over the signature of Rev. Henry Sloan Coffin.

Graded Lessons Abolished.

The assembly voted to abolish the graded Sunday school lessons which have been used for a number of years, and will in future adopt a system of lessons prepared for the use of Presbyterian churches only. This decision is the end of a fight between the "new theologists" and those of the old school, and means that the "new thought" will be given no place in the teachings of the younger Presbyterians.

The report of the lesson committee was made in an eloquent address by Rev. Andrew W. Brownson, of Philadelphia, who urged that the syndicate lessons be dropped. The opposition was said to have been led by Rev. Henry Sloan Coffin, of Union Theological seminary, one of the most advanced liberalists in the church, and W. C. Covert, of Chicago, who also belongs to the liberal wing, but afttr Dr. Brownson's address they declined to oppose the committee's report, which was adopted without further discussion.

The graded lessons which met disfavor were prepared by a syndicate and used by Methodists and Congregationalists as well as Presbyterians. The members of the old school in the Presbyterian church contended that they contained too much of the "new theology," and as system were too largely Unitarian in thought to be in keeping with Presbyterian teachings.

SLAYER OF HUSBAND IS ADJUDGED INSANE

Mrs. Jennie Radcliffe, Sent to Milledgeville Asylum, Escapes Trial.

Columbus, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Mrs. Jennie May Radcliffe, who is held on a charge of murdering her husband, George Radcliffe, on the night of April 19, was today adjudged to be insane, and will be sent to the insane asylum at Milledgeville for treatment. Examination as to her sanity was made by Superintendent L. M. Jones, of the state asylum, attorneys agreeing that his opinion should be accepted by both.

Dr. Jones gave it as his opinion that the woman was in a serious condition, and that she had become so since the night of the shooting. Under the arrangement, if she recovers her mind, she will be brought back to Columbus and tried for murder.

Dr. Jones also made an examination of William Green, also charged with murder, having killed O. D. Kitchens on March 9. Dr. Jones declared that in his opinion Green was faking. He will be placed on trial tomorrow.

MRS. TEDDER GUILTY OF PICKING POCKET OF INTOXICATED MAN

Macon, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Mrs. Frances Tedder, the former Atlanta woman, was today found guilty of larceny from the person in the Bibb superior court.

Sentence has been withheld until George Douglas, a relative of Mrs. Tedder's, can be tried on the same charge.

It is alleged that Mrs. Tedder and Douglas robbed W. T. Kersey in Macon last fall taking $235 from his pocket while he was in an intoxicated condition.

STRONG RIDING WEAK, ASSERTS DR. ELLIOTT

Noted Social Worker, in Ethical Lecture, Says World Must Realize Rights of Weak.

"Get off the backs of the weak!"

With these words, Dr. John Elliott reached the height of a forceful and penetrative address Thursday night at Cable hall—forceful, because it gripped the intense interest of everyone present for a whole hour, and penetrative, because it delved to the very rock bottom of the industrial problem of America.

Dr. Elliott is one of the most noted social workers in the country, being head of the Hudson Guild in New York city.

He spoke under the auspices of the special ethical lecture committee, which has furnished Atlanta such a splendid series of "ethical lectures" during the past year. Coming to a close with this lecture, the series has been recognized as a permanent and vital feature of the life of Atlanta, and already plans are under way for a similar series of eminent lectures during next fall and winter.

The message brought by Dr. Elliott Thursday night was that of recognition of the rights of the weak. He declared that the "square deal" for which the weaker half of America's varied populace are forced to live. Factories where children are made old men and women, sweatshops where widows stitch away their lives and their little children's lives, too; department stores, offices and switch-boards where girls work day and night, or escaping this slavery, are driven into worse.

Dr. Elliott described this picture as representing, not a universal, but a very important component part of America's life.

Women's Must Help Working Girl.

"America has not done justice to the weak. The strong are riding upon the backs of the weak to their advantage," he declared. "The burden has been placed on the bottom. The thing to do is to get off the backs of the weak! Then only will we do our duty to the world-wide problem."

In touching further upon the problem of the working girl's temptations, Dr. Elliott declared that the women of America owe it to their sex to protect themselves in the situation, as an entire class, before the solution to the problem would be found. Well-directed attention of women, he said, would result in a recognition of the justice of the minimum wage, and the uplift of the working girl's condition which would inevitably follow.

Dr. Elliott, who is staying at the Georgian Terrace, expects to return to New York Friday, having made this trip south for the express purpose of delivering the lecture in Atlanta.

J. WALTER LECRAW.

PETITIONS FILED IN FEDERAL COURT SET NEW RECORD

Six voluntary petitions in bankruptcy filed with Deputy Clerk Fred Beers, of the federal court yesterday made a new record in the bankruptcy division of the northern district of Georgia for a single day.

Augustus O. Mitcham, of Atlanta, declaring himself a salesman, asked to be discharged, and made the following liabilities aggregating $17,222.07 with assets amounting to $421.

W. C. Carpenter, a salesman living in Atlanta, declared by his papers of file that his liabilities amounted to $1,699.92 and that his assets would aggregate $437.

L. A. Ricketts, saying his home is in Atlanta, and that he is a barber, admits by his papers of file an indebtedness in the sum of $1,642.92 and that he has no assets against his obligations.

J. J. Barclay, of McCayaville, Fannin county, a railroad flagman and brakeman, in his petition asserts obligations in the sum of $392.16, with assets aggregating $200.

Goldman N. Hackney, of Blue Ridge, Fannin county, a telegraph operator, asserted in his petition that his liabilities would reach $1,587.85, but that his assets would not go beyond $150.

P. D. B. Stansell, a resident of Red Oak, Campbell county, formerly a merchant, but now a truck farmer, admitted obligations reaching $1,886.97, and declared he had no assets.

SEATS GO ON SALE FOR PERFORMANCE OF PLAYERS' CLUB

Seats will be placed on sale today at the Grand box office for the performance by the Atlanta Players' club of Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest." This performance, which will take place next Friday night, May 30, will be one of the social events of the year, as the boxes and orchestra are always filled with Atlanta's patrons of art, as well as social leaders, on the occasion of the annual performance of the club.

Mrs. John Marshall Slaton, Lamar Hill, Marsh Adair and Miss Hildreth Burton Smith are the leading characters in the "Importance of Being Earnest," which is one of the most popular plays of the English stage. The evening of May 30 will be brilliant "after the show," when an annual banquet of the Players' club being planned on the lawn of the Piedmont Driving club, with dancing to follow.

Southern Cypress Men.

New Orleans, La., May 22.—The Southern Cypress Manufacturers' association, in annual convention here today, elected the following officers for the coming year: Frederick Willbert, of Plaquemine, La., president; R. H. Knox, of Savannah, Ga., first vice president; George Watson, of New Orleans, secretary, and E. G. Schwartz, of Burton, La., treasurer. Only matters of routine business were considered by the convention.

Arabs Drive Italians.

Benghazi, Tripoli, May 22.—That the Italian troops under General Ganbretti have suffered a severe reverse is known today in dispatches announcing that they were forced to retire after the battle with the Arabs on May 16 at Sidi Garba, near Derna.

The Italians advanced in three columns against the Arab position, where they met with stubborn resistance, finally being compelled to retreat to Derna.

Trainmen Spend Millions.

San Francisco, May 22.—The entire session today of the biennial convention of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen was devoted to the reading of reports and approval of the financial condition of the organization. The report of the general secretary and treasurer, A. E. King, showed that more than $8,000,000 had been expended by the Brotherhood in the last two years. In death and disability claims alone during the years 1911-12, nearly $5,000,000 was expended. According to the officials of the organization, it costs $200,000 every time a convention is held.

PLAN REORGANIZATION FOR BRINSON RAILWAY

Owners Decide to Spend Million in Extending and Improving the Property.

Savannah, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—At a meeting today of the owners of the Brinson railway it was decided to refinance and reorganize the system. Approximately $1,000,000 is to be spent in extending and improving the property in the immediate future.

A meeting of the stockholders will be held in a month when these plans will be confirmed. President George M. Brinson will remain president, though it is said his authority will be more in the nature of an advisor than an executive. Richard Morgan, formerly connected with the Illinois Central, will be general manager of the Brinson system.

The idea is that the Brinson will be changed from a tramway to a real railroad. This is the way one of the company's financial backers expressed it. Heavy rails will be laid, grades will be cut and considerable new equipment will be added. Something like 350 new freight cars are to be ordered at once to enable the company to handle the business of the Great Eastern lumber company, with whom a contract was today entered into.

CONFESSED TO MURDER, BUT WAS RELEASED

Carcassonne, France, May 22.—Miquel Vallespi, who recently returned here from the Argentine Republic and gave himself up to the police, declaring that he wished to go to the guillotine for the murder of a woman fifteen years ago, was given his freedom today.

Vallespi related his story in the assize court before a jury and told of his struggles with his conscience, which finally led to his spiritual conversion and irresistibly impelled him to give up a prosperous position in Argentina to expiate the crime in France to satisfy the law. The jury, after a brief deliberation, acquitted him amid applause.

The crime caused a great sensation in France at the time, and Villespi, who was suspected of killing the woman for her money, disappeared. He was adjudged guilty by default and condemned to the guillotine.

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL OF THE MARKETS

INCREASED STRENGTH IN COTTON MARKET

Closed Firm at Net Gain of From 13 to 17 Points—Unfavorable Weather Reports.

New York, May 22.—The cotton market showed increased activity and strength today with prices making new high ground for the movement and closing firm at a net gain of from 13 to 17 points.

The opening was steady at unchanged prices to an advance of 3 points in sympathy with higher Liverpool cables. Trading was only moderately active at the start, and there was a little realizing by recent buyers for a turn, or some selling houses with southern connections which may have been encouraged by prospects for ideal spring weather in the western and central belts. Only slight recessions occurred, however, and the market gradually gained strength on continued covering and scattered buying, part of which seemed to come from trade sources.

The demand became more active after the publication of the detailed sales, weather reports showing heavy rains in the central belt which has recently been complaining of excessive moisture, and on the consequent advance stop orders were uncovered. More or less excitement then developed and prices shot up sharply, with July contracts selling at 11.83 and December at 11.24 or about 36 to 42 points above the recent low level and at the highest point reached since the break of last week.

Reading was active enough to check the advance around these prices, but the close was within a point or two of the best. Beyond the apprehensions of too much rain in the central belt, there seemed to be nothing fresh in the new crop news to cause shorts alarm, or to create any fresh sentiment with reference to the probable showing of the first government condition report.

The steadiness of Liverpool and further reduction in the local certificated stock were factors in the advance, however, and shorts were probably considered more sensitive to the unfavorable reports from the central belt, by the fact that prices had failed to weaken on the breaking of the drought and drouth toward the end of last week.

New Orleans Cotton.

New Orleans, May 22.—Heavy buying featured the cotton market today, nearly all the day was for large traders who were taking the long side in an effort to rause the price above that at best bear bulling up for some time past to cover at a loss before the first bureau report of the season on conditions which will be issued Monday, June 2. In the morning the market was quiet but steady and prices were on a small advance. In the afternoon the market livened up and buying increased until the ring roared with activity. Throughout the day the trade centers are in a scattered way, but rumor said that the operations of the bulls were based on the desire to run to cover large lines of short cotton.

The market opened steady at an advance of 1 to 3 points on good cables and reports controlled by the bulls of too much rain in the central and western sections of the belt. The Atlantics continued to complain that rains were not general. Bulls were not particularly aggressive in their buying, especially after telegrams telling of blooming cotton were received from several points in Texas and Arkansas. Just as soon bulls came out with the claim that the pending report on conditions would be below the ten-year average of 79.9 per cent. This increased the buying and in the afternoon the market rose 12 to 16 points over yesterday's final quotations, closing steady at a net gain of 6 to 12 points.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, May 22.—(Special.)—Europe, though the daily buying of a few thousand bales against forward commitments of cotton, appears to have absorbed about all the contracts which Southern and Wall street have been willing to make. We judge the south has sold about half of this quantity. For a time or two it was evident that the needed rains did not bring new sellers or cause Europe to take profits. Therefore, when a further movement of some 4,000 bales from our scattered stock became known some parties thought it would be well to cover and found few sellers. Thus the market closes steady 14 to 16 points higher. Europe bought at the close. The situation would seem to depend upon what the foreign holders do at Atlanta, south as well as north and west are short of the contracts which they hold.

LONGS TAKE PROFITS AND WHEAT DECLINES

Close Weak, Although Reports of Serious Damage in Arkansas Were Confirmed.

Chicago, May 22.—Heavy profit-taking by longs today gave the wheat market a setback notwithstanding that serious damage in Kansas was confirmed. The close was weak, with prices ranging from ¾@¾c net decline to 1-8c advance. Corn finished ⅝-8 to ⅝-8c up, oats at a gain of 1-8@1-4 to 1c and provisions unchanged to 5c down. Urgent demand from wheat shorts kept the pit in a turmoil the greater part of the day. More than once the call was so importunate that prices would still have a crop of 100,000,000 bushels, the largest ever raised. Oklahoma dispatches also predicted a liberal total of harm to injury from dry weather. The fact that export bids had not been raised counted, too, against the bulls. Seaboard clearances of wheat and flour equalled 578,000 bushels. Primary receipts of wheat were 526,000 bushels; a-year ago, 314,000.

Corn advanced on account of big purchasing by well known speculators. They took the position that nothing but receipts here would check an advance.

When buying ceased, the market slowly reacted. Many reports that crop progress was unsatisfactory lifted the prices of oats.

Selling credited to the big packers eased the provision market. The best demand came from pit traders influenced by the strength of coarse grain.

UPWARD MOVEMENT IN STOCK MARKET

Important Stocks Up 1 to 2 Points—Harriman Stocks Led—Trading Heavier.

New York, May 22.—In a comprehensive upward movement which lifted the important stocks 1 to 2 points, the market today broke away from the narrow groove which it has been following recently. Trading was heavier and the ease with which prices were marked up suggested a scant supply of stocks.

It was assumed that short selling had been over-extended, and that covering was primarily responsible for the rise. Prices relapsed from the high point in the last half hour, after the most pressing demand from the shorts had been satisfied.

The Harriman stocks led in the upward movement, being influenced by persistent rumors that a plan had been agreed upon for separation of the properties in accordance with the decree of the supreme court. Apparently the only basis for the report was the fact that a joint meeting was held of representatives of the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific boards. The firmness of Union Pacific *recently and its ready re*sponse previously to similar unconfirmed rumors have strengthened the belief that satisfactory progress is being made in the negotiations.

Considerable importance was attached to the Harriman statement that $100,000 gold had been engaged for export to Venezuela. The engagement was believed to mark the beginning of the outflow of gold to South America which occurs each year. In the opinion of international bankers, this year's movement is likely to be on a larger scale than usual. In view of the efforts which are being made by the principal banks of Europe to build up their gold reserves, it was regarded as significant that this country, with its unprotected store of gold, will be called upon to play a larger part than heretofore in the employment of gold to South America for European account.

Bonds advanced after some hesitation in the early trading. There was a gold market for the new issues of New York city bonds at 100. Total sales, par value, $3,005,000. United States 4s coupon declined ⅛ on call, the 2s coupon ⅛ and the 3s registered ⅛ on call. The 2s coupon declined ¾.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR HOLD BIG CONCLAVE TONIGHT

Probably the greatest conclave of the Grand Knights of the Temple ever assembled will be held tonight at 7:30 under the auspices of the Atlanta commandery, No. 9, at the Masonic temple.

Every living past commander of this commandery will be present and will participate in conferring the order of the temple. Right Eminent Sir Joseph Kyle Orr, present grand senior warden of the grand encampment of the United States, will also be present.

An elaborate musical program will be rendered by the Knight Templar quartet; this with the military movements by the Knight Templar drill corps, of Atlanta, will introduce two features not seen before in Atlanta.

W. D. PERRY UNDER BOND FOR KILLING ELLIOTT

Columbus, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Policeman W. D. Perry, who shot and killed Policeman H. C. Elliott in Girard, Ala., on the night of May 12, was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Chief of Police Lawrence, of Girard, and placed under a bond of $1,000 for his appearance before the county judge at a date to be set.

Perry shot Elliott after Elliott had shot him twice, inflicting serious, though not fatal wounds. Perry was able to get out on the streets today for the first time since he was shot.

AUTO TRUCK KILLS BOY

Rear Wheel Crushes Head of Sydney Whatley.

Reynolds, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Sydney Whatley, the 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Whatley, was run over and instantly killed by an automobile truck yesterday afternoon.

The little fellow was playing in the street in front of his home and attempted to board the passing truck, which was running slowly. He lost his balance and fell under the side of the machine. The rear wheel ran over and crushed his head.

The Whatleys are prominent and the town is shocked and grieved at their misfortune. No blame attaches to the driver or owner of the truck.

Coffee.

New York, May 22.—Coffee futures opened steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 2 points under a renewal of yesterday's selling. Thereafter, with advices from primary markets, cabling somewhat larger Brazilian receipts than consistent with recent estimates, and continued talk of disappointing spot demand. Offerings were gradually absorbed by the realizing of recent sellers and little support from trade sources, and after showing a net loss of 5 or points the market rallied with the close steady.

Spot coffee quiet; Rio seven, 11¾; Santos fours, 13¾. Mild coffee quiet; Cordova, 14@16 nt, nominal.

Havre, 1-4@¾ lower; Hamburg, ¼@¾ pfennige lower. Rio 100 lower at 9$800; Santos fours, 100 lower at 9$700. Receipts, nominal. Rio exchange on London, 7-16d lower at 16¼d. ATLANTA'S STRIDES, DAY BY DAY

ALL THE NEWS OF REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING

The auction sale or the C. G. Hanrath property by Foster & Robson yesterday afternoon was not a success, only partly in the rain, but brought $5,530.

The following parties were the purchasers:

Bungalow to J. A. Boatwright for $1,500.

Bungalow to M. Owen for $1,526, sold on the grounds for a profit.

Bungalow to Mrs. T. M. Johnson for $1,550.

Lot 36 to I. N. Ragsdale for $245.

Lot 37 to T. M. Bradshaw for $140.

Lot 19 to M. Owen for $270.

Lot 49, on Vannoy street, to J. L. Veal for $300.

At this point the sale was stopped on account of the rain, and everything was satisfactory but the weather.

Apartments Are Sold.

Turman, Black & Calhoun have sold for Mrs. M. B. McCerren to T. S. Wilkins the three-story brick apartment building at 101 Ponce de Leon avenue. The price was $30,000.

The building contains three apartments, bringing an aggregate rental of $3,600 a year. The lot is 55x251, and is at the southeast corner of Myrtle street.

LOST AND FOUND

THAT LOST ARTICLE MAY NOT BE FOUND TODAY

Or tomorrow or next week. In fact, a month or more may elapse before it turns up. A little persistency may be necessary. Often the article remains unfound; often fear of prosecution or hope of a more satisfactory reward may delay the restoration. Then, the belated awakening of the finder's conscience explains the return. But persistency and Constitution wants will usually recover a lost article if an honest person finds it. The service of The Constitution Lost and Found Bureau is also enlisted in behalf of advertisers.

BOARD OF EDUCATION URGES NEW BUILDING

New Quarters for Girls' English Commercial High School Will Take Precedence.

That the erection of the Girls' English Commercial High school should take precedence over any other new building was determined by the board of education yesterday. The board passed unanimously a resolution offered by W. H. Rich looking to the construction of the new school building at the earliest date possible.

Mr. Rich pointed out that there was a most urgent need for a new high school. There are between eighty and one hundred girls now seeking a business education for whom the housing facilities are altogether inadequate. It was the duty of Atlanta to see to it that these girls were given an opportunity to acquire the knowledge which was necessary to enable them to earn a livelihood.

There was some debate in the board as to the advisability of employing a dental inspector to make periodical examinations of the childrens' teeth. V. H. Kriegshaber, of the chamber of commerce, made a report on the examination of the Bell and Crew street schools, which has just been completed by a committee of dentists acting under the direction of the chamber of commerce. Mr. Kriegshaber said that the first examination, made some time ago, showed that 90 per cent of the children had defective teeth. The examination just completed proved that 75 per cent of the Bell street and 50 per cent of the Crew street pupils had had their teeth treated as a result of the first examination. The matter was finally referred to the finance committee.

There was discussion as to whether the medical inspectors were not overpaid for the amount of work done by them and whether the board should not require of them five hours of work daily, instead of four as at present.

Report on Penny Lunches.

A petition signed by the principals of all the white schools in the city was read urging the board not to install penny lunches in the school until adequate arrangements had been made for serving them. These lunches imposed an extra burden on teachers, the report said, which was almost unendurable.

In connection with the lunch question, the board of lady visitors reported that, since they started serving lunches, 19,956 penny lunches had been served at a cost of $588.02.

The petition of the patrons of the Davis street school asking for a new school building was received, and the good will of the board extended to them in their effort to have council appropriate the necessary funds.

The board decided to invite the National Educational assodation to meet in Atlanta in 1916.

A meeting of the budget committee will be held at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning to put the finishing touches on the school budget to be presented to council for the coming year. Other members of the board are invited to meet with the committee and to participate in working out the deails of the budget.

GREEKS AND BULGARS BATTLE AT SALONIKI

Conflict Continued Entire Day With Great Fury—Artillery Freely Used.

London, May 22.—Dispatches from Saloniki and Athens tonight report another serious conflict between the Bulgarians and Greeks. Recent fighting led to the establishment of a neutral zone near Salonikl, but on May 20 a strong Bulgarian force, with artillery, violated the zone and were hotly opposed by the Greeks. The result of the engagement has not been disclosed.

The Times' Saloniki correspondent says that the fighting between the Bulgarians and Greeks continued the whole day, apparently with great fury. Artillery was freely used to cover the infantry attack.

A Sofia dispatch to The Times says that a definite territorial agreement exists between Servia and Greece, excluding Bulgaria from all the region west of the rivers Vardar and Bregalnitza. By this agreement Greece would obtain Salonik, Florina, Vodena, Kakums, Seres, Rampa and Kavalla; Servia getting Struga, Ochrida, Monastir and Perlepe.

Cordele Teachers Named.

Cordele, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—One of the strongest evidences of the splendid success of the session of the Cordele High school, which has just closed, and of the satisfaction and harmony with which all parties concerned in the school have worked, is that at a recent meeting of the city school board, every member of the corps of teachers was re-elected by a unanimous vote.

EPISCOPAL WOMEN DENIED SUFFRAGE

Portland, Ore., May 22.—Efforts of the Oregon Equal Suffrage association to extend the sphere of women into the governing body of the Protestant Episcopal church failed, when the annual convention of the diocese of Oregon unanimously laid on the table a resolution demanding representation in the diocesean convention.

Chancellor Gilsan explained that whatever voice the women of Oregon might have in the government of the communwealth, the constitution and canons of the Episcopal church were plainly antagonistic to accord them representation at this time.

BELL IS ELECTED TO HEAD PYTHIANS

Mayor of Milledgeville Is Named Grand Chancellor at the State Convention in Waycross.

Wycross, Ga., May 22.—The grand lodge of the Knights of Pythias of Georgia, in annual convention here today, elected the following officers: Grand chancellor, N. S. Bell, Milledgeville; grand vice chancellor, H. N. Stanley, Dublin; grand prelate, John F. Cheney, Marietta; grand keeper of records and seals, W. H. Leopold, Savannah; grand master of the exchequer, R. C. Norman, Washington; grand master-at-arms, Troy of Milledgeville, elected grand chancellor of Pythians of Georgia.

N. S. BELL,

Beatty, Athens; grand inner guard, George C. Schausele, Augusta; grand outer guard, Joseph N. Smith, Barnesville; supreme representative, C. M. Milan, Tarterville; R. D. Brantley, Cleorkeeper.

Prizes for Savannah.

In the annual prize drill between companies of the uniform rank which featured the closing of the most successful grand lodge convention ever held in Georgia, Savannah companies walked away with three of the four prizes, Georgia, Company No. 1, of Savannah, was first prize winner; Teutonia, No. 2, of Savannah, second; Colonial, No. 18, of Atlanta, third; Company 16, of Savannah, fourth.

The cavalry troops of Savannah was given $100 for attending the convention. The prizes were $200, $150, $100 and $50, respectively.

After some discussion the convention voted to adopt Macon as the permanent place for the state Pythians. It is understood that this is the first step towards making Macon headquarters for the state.

The grand lodge took action on one of the retiring grand chancellor's suggestions today by cutting the state disrtict deputy grand chancellors from 24 to 12. This was done in view of the work of the state deputy.

A council of the grand lodge officers was held at headquarters this afternoon at the request of Grand Chancellor Miller S. Bell, and plans for the years' work discussed in detail.

Pythian Sisters Elect.

Pythian sisters elected grand temple officers as follows at their concluding session today: Past grand chief, Mrs. Jennie E. Dreeson, of Savannah; grand chief, Mrs. Madora Brown, of Augusta; grand senior, Mrs. Addie Konneman, of Savannah; grand junior, Mrs. Julia Schaufele, of Augusta; grand manager, Miss Helen Glass, of Fort Valley; grand mistress of records and correspondence, Mrs. Margaret McFather, of Edison; grand mistress of finance, Mrs. Annie M. Cumming, of Augusta; grand protector, Mrs. Gussie Behr, of Savannah; grand guard, Mrs. H. Appleby, of Augusta. The retiring grand chief, Mrs. Dreeson, was presented with a handsome jewel by the temple. The supreme representative elected was Mrs. Josie Cox, of Savannah, and Miss E. M. Schroeder, of Savannah, alternate.

Today the supreme chief of Pythian sisters, Mrs. Ida M. Johnson, of Colorado, visited Waycross and addressed the convention. This is her fist visit to Georgia. Tonight she went to Savannah with Mrs. Dreeson to be the guest of the Pythian sisters of that city at a reception at Thunderbolt casino tomorrow night. Her visit made Waycross today the host for the two highest Pythian officials in the world, Supreme Chancellor T. J. Carling, of Macon, being in the city also.

Sketch of Bell.

Milledgeville, Ga., May 22.—(Special.)—Miller S. Bell, mayor of Milledgeville, elected grand lodge grand Knights of Pythias, is well known over all Georgia, being ex-president of the State Bankers' association, and has just been nominated to serve his fourth term as mayor of the city.

He was first grand vizier of Yekod Temple, D. O. O. K., and has served all posts in the grand lodge from outer guard up to the present high office.

The election of Mr. Bell to the grand chancellor's office is welcomed throughout the state, over 20,000 members of the order being loyal to their leader. While Mr. Bell is prominent in fraternities he also is a leading business man, being president of the Milledgeville Banking company and allied with several other big concerns of this city. He is also treasurer of the board of trustees of the Georgia Normal and Industrial college and is a member of the board of trustees of the Georgia Military college.
